the sale opened very quietly and a good many pens were passed; buyers were cautious and last week's prices were hard to obtain, but after a while vendors settled down to take reduced prices and many sheep were cashed, quotations showing a slight decrease on last week. Entries in the lamb section were heavier than last week; mostly all good fat lambs. These came in for attention and were mostly all cashed under the hammer at recent rates. Fat middle weight, 145s. to 152s. 6d.; hoggets, best, 155s. to 163s.; ier than last year and included some nice bulls; trade was active; more bulls could have been sold; one 4-year-old bull, the property of Mr. Condon, Herbertstown, was withdrawn at 47½

gns. 1½-year-old bulls, best, 24 gns.
to 27 gns.; second run, 19 gns. to 23
