CYCLING

MORTELL WINS 25 MILES ROAD CHAMPIONSHIP

Caherdavin Cycling Club's record of never losing one of the road championships of Limerick in the last nine years, was broken to atoms over the Bruffane road, yesterday (writes "The Star"). The honour of breaking the long superiority of this Club went to Joe Mortell (Bruff C.C.), who finished the hard 25 miles journey in 1 hour 15 minutes. This is the club's first county title and also the first occasion that a road championship was held at a venue outside the city.

Following a great come-back and a splendid race to finish two seconds behind the winner was C. Lynch (Limerick City Club). S. Barry of the same club was third.

RESULT

1—Joe Mortell (Bruff C.C.)—1 hour 15 minutes; 2—C. Lynch (Limerick City Club); 3—S. Barry (do).—6 com-pletes and 3 lengths. 6 com-pletes.

J. Waters and C. Carey, of the Limerick N.A.C.A. Board, acted as referee and judges.

Richmond paid one visit to "The Star's" territory and scored a goal from a ruck, which was un-expected. Presentation were still being made when the end came.

Presentations were made to J. Sheehy, Sheehan, Duffy, and Tier; and for Richmond, to Quinn, Sheehy and O'Connell. Referee, Mr. D. Meany.

Trusting this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment.

VOTES OF SYMPATHY.

National Union of Tailors and Garment Workers — At a meeting of the above Union, a vote of sym-big tree I spoke about. Now another personal friend of mine told me recently what happened at the Jesuit Church, The Crescent, Limerick. Willie Byrne told me a school mate that while there he found an inspiration that he would be cured if he visited St. Patrick's Well and he was. Now John Byrne, Willie's father, in recognition of the miracle performed on his son, erected some work at the well, including a beautiful timber railing which time destroyed for the want of care.

John Byrne, a man of tact and ability, was born in Slaty Castle, Co. Wicklow. He married a Limerick woman, Jane Whelan, who has relations in Limerick still, and John Byrne has a son a draper employed at Mr. Kearney's, 72 William Street. Now, as a business man, John Byrne had 5 licensed premises in Limerick — 81 Henry Street, The Bodega, 37 O'Connell St; 18 Shannon St., 9 Sarsfield St.; 12 Wolfe Tone St.—and was the proprietor of two stores, The Queen's Store, Henry Street, now in possession of the G.P.O., and the other one where Mr. John Kenny and Sons Builders, were located in Upper Cecil Street, Limerick.

Now this story of Saint Patrick's Well, every word of which is authentic, ought to stir every citizen who claims to have a spark of Catholicity and Irish patriotism in their blood, and that when the time comes they will generously support a collection to put that plot, which will be called St. Patrick's Park, in such a way that it will be kept with the spirit of Catholics and Irishmen until the end of time, a credit to all those who have contributed to make it so; and let it be said from father to son—"well, thank be to God, I had a part in making St. Patrick's Park what it is to-day. Apologising for trespassing on so much space—I beg to remain, yours sincerely,

JOHN REDDAN,
 23 O'Curry Place, Limerick.

PURCHASE OF BULLS AT BALLINGARRY

Ballingarry, which was an important town in the olden days, and could boast of its fairs and markets (writes our correspondent there) regained some of its lost glory (only for the day) when Mr. M. Brannigan, Dublin, made the following purchases during the week-end—Pat Lenihan, Kilbeg, Kilfinn, 14½ cwt. bull made £46 12s. 6d. P.
