

office), when the Council had before it Departmental sanction to the acceptance of the tender of Mr. T. O'Mahony, Tralee, for the amount stated.

Sanction was also received for tenders for the erection of houses at Patrickswell, Pallaskenry and Kilmallock.

Mr. Ryan said that work would start on these schemes at a very early date.

The Council expressed satisfaction at the progress being made.

---

MISSING FARMER

---

FOUND DEAD IN FIELD

Mr. John Hartigan, Fort, Charleville, an extensive farmer, who was missing from his home since Friday, was discovered dead beside a fence in a field a short distance from his residence by two neighbouring farmers on Saturday morning.

---

BLIND PILGRIMS AT LOURDES.

Eight hundred blind men, women and children, accompanied by a number of blind priests, made a three-day pilgrimage to Lourdes to pray for patience and courage in their affliction. Cardinal Saliege, of Toulouse, made a special visit to the shrine to spend a few hours with the pilgrims.

---

COMEDIAN ELECTROCUTED ON STAGE.

As a packed theatre laughed at his jokes, comedian Tito Capodaglia pulled a microphone towards him, and fell dead on the stage at Modena, Italy. He had touched an exposed electric wire and was electrocuted.

---

THE AMERICAN TOUCH!

The American touch was introduced to Ennistymon District Court when Mr. G. J. O'Donnell, solicitor, after examination of a witness, turned to Supt. J. McCarron, prosecuting, and said with a smile—"Your witness."

---

OWNS LAND WORTH TWENTY MILLIONS.

market, Co. Cork, the driver of one of the cars, is in Barrington's Hospital, Limerick, suffering from a fractured arm. The driver of the second car, Mr. James Davitt, Cashel, Co. Tipperary, escaped with cuts and bruises, as did the other occupants of the cars.

---

DIED AT HIS WORK

---

COLLAPSE OF COUNCIL

EMPLOYEE

Whilst engaged in cleaning a stream in the Tory Hill Drainage Scheme, near Croom, Mr. John Allen a Co. Council worker, of Manister, Croom, collapsed suddenly and died.

Rev. Father J. Kelly, P.P., Manister, rendered spiritual aid.

Deceased was an active member of the 3rd Battalion, East Limerick Brigade, Old I.R.A.

---

ANOTHER CLARE HOTEL SOLD

The Falls Hotel, Ennistymon, Co. Clare, has been sold by Messrs. M. McMahon and Son, Auctioneers, Ennis, to Mr. T. O'Donnell, solr., Limerick, for a client whose name has not been disclosed (writes our Ennis correspondent). The purchase price, it is stated, was £6,000 but this has not been confirmed.

---

PROTECTING HOME APPLE GROWERS.

The Department of Agriculture has informed Cavan Co. Committee of Agriculture that licences for the importation of apples will not be issued until home growers have had a reasonable opportunity of disposing of their crops.

---

SECOND CROP STRAWBERRIES

Mr. John Connellan, who resides at Limerick Road, Ennis, has at present growing in his garden a second crop of strawberries. He is an ex-officer of the South African Police Force and a keen amateur gardener.

---

THE NEW NUNCIO.

Monsignor Ettore Felici, new own finances and could proceed on Mr. Sheahan said that the proposed scheme because if vessels there would be no chance.

Chairman—It is a scheme to purchase We could ask the Government to purchase the river could be

After some further Mr. Hickey's resolution was unanimously adopted to have the Board of Directors examined for ascertaining to the Board could proceed with financial resources

---

INCREASED

The Manager reported that in nine months period from September the revenue on vessels and goods increased by approximately 10 per cent compared with the year. The increase follows—rates on goods imported on exports, £665.

Chairman—It is our revenue is on

---

THREE WRONG

---

FINED 10/-

When giving evidence in District Court on Monday John Callinan, of Mills, who was suing for damages without a light said defendant had given wrong names before the court and he was witness to do his best.

Defendant said that the right name first given was not believe him and he took him to the Bench and gave the other name.

Justice Gordon said he would impose a fine of 10/- for the false name, making

---

NEW CLARE

Brian McMahon, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. roadmore, Ennis, passed their final examination at the University and secured a B.E.

---

SERVICE