THEATRE SEASON OPENS

On Sunday next, The College Players open their season at The Playhouse with the premiere of a new play, "Alas! Poor Yorick," by Mr. G. P. Gallivan.

Mr. Gallivan's latest work, which is a comedy, has for its theme the amusing happenings to a young married couple, somewhat bored with each other, who join the local dramatic society.

It will be remembered that last February, The College Players very successfully produced Mr. Gallivan's first effort, "Mourn The Ivy Leaf," and great local interest has been aroused by his new play.

The production is in the capable hands of Mr. Sean O'Kelly, who also takes an important part in the play. Others in the cast are:—Misses G. Mathews, Terry O'Driscoll, Maisie Fitzgerald and Messrs. M. J. O'Riordan, Eddie Gallivan and C. F. Cox. All are experienced players and a polished performance is expected.

Patrons are reminded that Sunday performances will be at 8.30. For further particulars, please see our advertising columns.

IN MEMORIAM

COPUES (Second Anniversary)—In loving memory of my dear wife, Mrs. Jean Copues, Church St., Askeaton, who died on October 17, 1947. On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered.

Will those who think of her to-day,
 A little prayer to Jesus say,
 Though silent you voice and vacant
 your chair,
 Sweet are the memories that still linger there;
 Our love still unaltered will ever remain,
 Till I meet you, dear Jean, in Heaven again.

—Always remembered by her loving husband, Joe, and three daughters, Marie, Anne and Jean.

DONEGAN (First Anniversary)—In loving memory of my dear son, Christy Donegan, 12, Edward Street, Limerick, who died on October 20, 1948. St. Joseph, pray for him. Masses offered. May God in His mercy, grant you rest.

As in your own way, you were one of the best.
 Mother of Sorrows, to thee we pray;
 Comfort our lonely hearts to-day,
 And ask your dear Son, at our request,
 To grant dear Christy eternal rest.

—Inserted by his loving parents, brother and sisters.

CREAMER (Second Anniversary)—In ever loving memory of my dear father, Patrick Creamer, Newtown, Ballybrood, who died on October 10, 1947. Masses offered.

We miss him, we mourn him,
 In sorrow unseen,
 And dwell on the memory
 Of days that have been.

—Inserted by his loving daughter, Kathleen.

EGAN (Third Anniversary)—In sad and loving memory of my dear husband, John (Jack) Egan, late of "Greenville," Farranshane, who died October 17, 1946. On his soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered.

Dearest, sweetest, precious Jesus,
 Take our loved one to Your breast,
 Fold him in Your mother's mantle,
 Grant his soul eternal rest.
 Will those who think of him to-day,
 A little prayer to Jesus say.

—Sadly missed by his loving wife and children.

FLANAGAN (Seventh Anniversary)—In loving memory of my dear father, James Flanagan, who died on October 16, 1942 (Feast of St. Gerard). On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy.
