OBITUARY

Mr. Edmond Quigley, Ballyculleen

We deeply regret to announce the death of Mr. Edmond Quigley, Ballyculleen, Croom, brother of Very Rev. Canon Quigley, Seattle, which took place on the 11th October, after a short illness. Deceased was a sprightly, lively, lighthearted man for his great bulk, a most respected and loveable figure, a practical and industrious farmer. He was always in the best of spirits and was noted for his jolly and merry banter.

The funeral from the parish church, Banogue, to the family burial ground at Hospital, was an imposing demonstration of popular sympathy, and a striking appreciation of his many noble and endearing qualities, and of the esteem in which deceased's family is held.

The officiating clergymen were:— Very Rev. Canon McCarthy, P.P., Hospital (cousin); Very Rev. Father Condon, P.P., Banogue; Very Rev. Father O'Dea, P.P., Dromin; Rev. Father Sheehy, C.C., Dromin; Rev. Father Crowley, C.C., Croom; Rev. Father Kirby, C.C., Croom.

Rev. Father Russell, C.C., Kilmacshannon, officiated at the removal of the remains.

Amongst the chief mourners were—Mrs. B. Quigley (widow); Willie Quigley (son); Pat Quigley (brother); Thomas Lynch (brother-in-law); Annie Lynch and Mrs. P. Quigley, Thomas and Ml. O'Riordan (nephews); Sister Matthew, Ballybay; Josie Quigley, Mrs. R. M. Donegan, Mrs. D. Hanney (nieces); Mrs. Catherine Ryan, Cashel; Mr. Patrick Hogan; Martin Hickey; Patrick and Mrs. Hogan, John and Thomas Hickey, etc., etc.

It would be impossible to give a list of the many Mass cards and floral tributes received.
