

under the Local Authorities (Works) Act, 1949, by the Limerick County Council came within the scope of the Act.

The Minister, in reply, said:— With one exception all the 275 schemes submitted by Limerick County Council under the Local Authorities (Works) Act, 1949, for execution in the current financial year appear to come within the scope of the Act. In regard to the remaining case, a detailed report from the County Council is awaited before a definite decision will be made.

NORWEGIAN TANKER AT FOYNES

On Monday morning the 7th inst. (writes our Foynes correspondent), the Norwegian tanker, "Vav," arrived in Foynes Harbour, bringing 6,000 tons of motor spirits and kerosene for the Irish-American Oil Company.

The tanker brought her cargo from Aruba and, having discharged part of it in Dublin, came on to Foynes. This is the vessel's first visit to the harbour.

AWARDS FOR BRAVERY

Certificates for bravery were presented to 21 persons in Leinster House, Dublin, on Tuesday night. The recipients included the following:—Master Donal Gallagher (aged 15), 22 Clare St., Limerick, who attempted to save a man of 22 from drowning in the Shannon at Garraun, Ardnacrusha. The man was later rescued. Mr. Edward Noonan, Shanpallas, Pallaskenry, who rescued a youth from the river at Ringmoylan Pier, Pallaskenry.

DIED AT HIS WORK

Michael Moloney (68), farmer, Donaman, Adare, died suddenly at his residence (writes our Adare correspondent). Deceased was at his usual work during the day and took suddenly ill and died almost immediately. Medical certificate showed death from natural causes and an inquest was not deemed necessary.

Association, etc. Mr. Barry is due to speak at New York on November 17th, Pittsburgh on the 20th, and Chicago on the 24th. He expects to be away for a fortnight.

Mr. Conlon and Senator Linehan, who have been selected by the Six Counties Nationalist Organisation to represent the North at these and other meetings in America, will leave Shannon on Sunday.

FOX PEST

Reports have been made that foxes are again becoming active in their unwelcome visits to poultry yards in Abbeyfeale district, where ducks and hens have been disappearing for some time (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). Most of the woods in West Limerick and adjoining Kerry have been cut down for years, but the foxes are making the best of the few remaining for their operational headquarters.

ABSENCE FROM SCHOOL

Guards White and Dennehy had another batch of summonses for children's non-attendance at school, dealt with by Justice D. F. Gleeson in the City District Court to-day.

One mother told the Justice that her son was late for the roll-call on the occasions mentioned.

The Justice warned her and other defendants that he would send their children to an industrial school if they did not attend school regularly in future.

CAME FIRST OUT OF 175

A £5 prize and certificate of the Society of Irish Motor Traders was presented to Mr. Joseph Sheehan, Erin Street, Kilkee, Co. Clare, who won first place in Ireland for senior mechanical apprentices against 175 competitors.

NEW WEST LIMERICK P.C.

Mr. Michael Lenihan, of Dromtrasna O'Brien, Abbeyfeale, who took a prominent part in advancing labour claims in West Limerick, has been appointed a Peace Commissioner for the district.

Catherine Str one was in portions of damaged.

The accident of the cars w away from w

LIMERICK

Following t Government brandy, it is local licensed not to raise these commo reluctantly co increase their tillers and increases.

HOSPITAL

According t land steward ony) four st Ennis Mental yielded 35 barr which had b Ranks, Ltd., 62/6 per barrel

LATE VERY

The name c sister-in-law, tently omitted mourners atte the late Very P.P., Broadfor deceased.

7,500 GUIN

At a cattle Shropshire, an 7,500 guineas. ing up to £6, shipped from

APPLE WE

An apple of t variety weighin a pound and a Mr. John Thomastown.

BIG AN

Local fisherm a fish measur and five feet in the storm at port.