

LATE NEWS

TWO FOR SIX-COUNTY SEAT

Our Dublin correspondent wires that there will be a straight fight between Mr. G. B. Hanna, K.C. (Unionist), and Mr. J. Morrow (Northern Ireland Labour) for the seat in the Duncarin constituency of the Six County Parliament, rendered vacant by the death of Mr. Grant, the Six County Health Minister. At zero hour to-day, only the two nominations mentioned were handed in.

"MOUNTIES" MAY COME HERE

The possibility of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police performing their world famous musical ride in Ireland is being investigated by Lieut.-Col. F. Aherne, who is the non-riding captain of the Irish team at present competing in the horse show at Toronto, according to a message from the Canadian Capital to-day.

REQUETE NAP

(By our Special Racing Correspondent).

Southern trainers will be very strongly represented in the Naas November Handicap, the last big prize of the flat race season, at Naas to-morrow.

Vincent O'Brien has not declared the Cesarewitch failure, Knock Hard, but he still holds a strong hand with Corrywint, The Beetle, Wye Fly and Bally Lucy, and I think Wye Fly, on the strength of his second to Rockspring at Leopardstown, will take a lot of beating. Over the distance of to-morrow's race, however, Presumed, Mary Lucy and Aragenno must all possess outstanding chances on this season's form, and I vote for Presumed to win from Wye Fly. I make Mary Lucy the danger to both.

Few will look beyond the mount of Morny Wing for the winner of the Monastereven Plate, and I accord Requete a confident nap vote for this opening event.

SELECTIONS.

- 1.30—Requete (Nap).
- 2.0—Mistura.
- 2.30—Presumed.
- 3.0—Green Dolphin.
- 3.30—Alberoni.
- 4.0—Blowhorn.

No one knows how much we miss him,
Or will ever know the pain;
We have suffered since we lost him,
Our home will never be the same.
Fare thee well, our darling angel,
Thou art gone to heaven's bright home.

Now midst glorious choirs of angels,
Thou art pleading near God's throne.
Not gone from Daddy's memory,
Far less from Mammy's love,
But gone to join the angels,
In their happy home above.
Calmly sleep, sweet darling boy,
No, we would not break thy rest,
We could not call thee dearest,
From thy home among the blest.
—Sadly missed by his mammy, daddy,
little brothers and sisters.

Again the month of November is here,

To us the saddest of the year.
These words are written with sad regret,

Of the parents we loved and will never forget.

It is said time heals all sorrow,
And helps us to forget;
But time alone has only proved,
How much we miss them yet.
God gave us strength to take it,
And courage to bear the blow,
But what it meant to lose them,
No one will ever know.
