Newcastle West December Fair

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

Dear Sir,—I waited for two weeks to see if one of the solid and intel- ligent publicans of Newcastle West would protest against the action of the County Manager in fixing the Munster fair for the second Friday in December each year. This will affect the best fair in Newcastle West, the 10th December fair, on certain years, and it is high- handed action on the Co. Council's part to interfere.

Where were the Newcastle West representatives on that day? It was left to that public spirited man, Mr. Fitzsimons, to protest and to look after the interest of our unfortunate town.

Does the Co. Manager think that it is the city that is paying him?

I hope you will publish this and thanking you.—Yours faithfully,
TOM O'CONNOR.

Free State, Newcastle West, 14th November, 1949.

Death Of Miss M. Hogan, Croom

The death occurred at Croom Hospital, after a long illness, of Miss May Hogan, of Main Street, Croom. A very popular young lady, the late Miss Hogan was a member of a re- spected family and her death at an early age occasioned deep regret over a wide area.

The remains were removed to Croom Church, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by Very Rev. J. Canon Wall, P.P., Croom, after which the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery in the pre- sence of a large attendance.

Chief mourners were: Mrs. Hogan (mother), Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Purcell (sisters), and Mr. J. Purcell (brother-in-law).

Officiating clergy were: Very Rev. J. Canon Wall, P.P., Croom; Rev. T. Kirby, C.C., do., and Rev. D. Crowley, C.C., do.

The general meeting on 17th De- cember is open to all persons inter- ested in the movement.

Meeting night is Monday at 18 Thomas St., from 8 o'clock onwards.
