

... Roosevelt being a Polio) and actual experience of the benefited by Polios in coming her under the non-sectarian non-political bond of Polio-my, that they are anxious to con-sufferers throughout the ty-Six Counties and to unite into a Fellowship with the wing objects in view: (1), To eliate sufferers from infantile lysis in fellowship for the en-agement and development of interests and abilities; (2), To means of training its members where necessary, of re-educat-hem for occupations in which can support themselves and e their contribution to the omic and social life of the munity; (3), To afford the less y handicapped the opportunity knowing other members more rely disabled than themselves of rendering service to them; To alleviate the loneliness of adless sufferers from infan-paralysis and to bring all those need advice and assistance contact with available sources elp; (5), To arouse the social cience on the problems and ulties encountered by the lised and, as opportunity es and need arises, to influence lation on their behalf; (6), To se on mechanical devices to titute for limbs that have be- e useless.

If you have suffered from infan-paralysis; if someone dear to has suffered, or as a thank-ing for being spared such ering, we invite you to com-iculate with either of the under-ed, who are working out the minaries essential to the olishment of an Infantile lysis Fellowship here. When ave compiled a list of interested ons, we shall communicate with one, setting out what we have view. Meantime, we can only e our initial approach in this . We are not asking for money -we merely want to know if will help us to help others to themselves, and you can do in one of two ways (a) by ng us have your name and ess and stating if you are a o yourself, or (b) by bringing letter to the notice of anyone know who is likely to be rested.

EILEEN O'FARRELL (Mrs.),
22, Pembroke Park, Balls-
bridge, Dublin.
THOS. R. POTTER (County and Borough Councillor), College Chambers, Dun
Laoghaire, Co. Dublin.

REVISIONS NECESSARY

In recent years it has been the usual practice for the crew win-ning the Maiden Union Cup to compete in the junior cham-pionship, but the fact of both events being fixed for the same day at venues 250 miles apart is sure to cause disappointment. An-other factor which will not have general approval is the fixing of the Senior I.A.R.U. Championship for July 12th. This would mean that the three championship events would be concluded in two days with a resulting lack of en-thusiasm for the remaining fix-tures.

It is possible that revisions of the above fixture list will be made in February or March next, and scarcely anyone will deny that alterations are necessary.

Death Of Mr. R. Savage, Dromcollogher

The death took place at his residence, Church Street, Drom-collogher, on Saturday last of Mr. Richard Savage, at a comparativ-ely early age, following a brief, but serious illness (writes our Dromcollogher correspondent). Seldom has a death in the locality occasioned such profound regret and sympathy. Senior partner of the well-known firm of Savage Brothers, Auctioneers, and also proprietor of a well-known business establishment, his integrity and fair-dealing won for him the affec-tion and esteem of all classes. Ever anxious to lend a helping hand and offer a kind word, his character could be said to embody all the Christian virtues. He was ever solicitous for the social advance-ment of his native town, and since its foundation was a Trustee and Treasurer of the Parochial Hall. His passing leaves a void not easily filled and to his sorrowing wife and young family the deepest sympathy is tendered. The funeral, which took place from Dromcol-logher Church to the local ceme-tery, was of huge dimensions and a fitting tribute to the popularity and esteem in which he was held.

BOXING

LIMERICK AND DISTRICT LEAGUE

The second tournament in the series being run off under the above

*O a m
of e*

PADD

FINE
OLD IRISH
WHISKY

CORK DISTILLERIES CO

Not too little..

