

...coldly but he
 ...nd them there was
 ...warm human feeling.
 ...however, room for
 ...ion of volunteer
 ...a grand and noble
 ...no more appealing
 ...he care of the blind,
 ...ich more could be
 ...behalf it was plea-
 ...that in Limerick, at ...work was prospering
 ...e was no fear of a
 ...as the enthusiastic
 ...rs and workers re-
 ...er.
 ...ghted with the con-
 ...tended to the home
 ...Hayes) by the Hon.
 ...he would also join
 ...given to Miss Hayes.
 ...Hayes got congra-
 ...Mrs. Kiely she ...served them. Those
 ...ated with the move-
 ...that they are very ...fortunate in having the ...s Hayes, as she had
 ...t kind of work, and
 ...y had her services,
 ...e no fear of the
 ...erick.

ANCIAL SIDE

...r referred to the
 ...of the Branch, and
 ...would like to have
 ...the funds, but they
 ...anything about that ...was one of those
 ...But a little more
 ...by way of card
 ...her social functions
 ...ds for the Council.
 ...like to congratulate
 ...e of the Mechanics'
 ...helped them in their ...funds, and he would
 ...end grateful thanks
 ...the National Bakery
 ...Limerick Greyhound
 ...for their efforts in a

...re could be done
 ...e lot of the blind,
 ...Keyes. He sug-
 ...hey might get a
 ...ttee together for the ...anising social func...ard drives, etc., and ...t the citizens would ...give the necessary
 ...aritable a cause.

...he paid a tribute to ...the work she was
 ...e organisation. As
 ...ely was at the head
 ...would be no fear for
 ...also congratulated
 ...f the committee on ...the progress of the

...having been adopted,
 ...osed and Mrs. O'Cal-

...said it was very nice, and he sold ...it to him. It appeared that the ...State was under the impression ...that the watches were stolen
 ...property, but he did not know ...anything about the watches being ...stolen as he bought them in good ...faith. He was not aware if there ...was a lot of smuggling taking ...place at Cork Harbour.

Mr. Power—Where are the seven watches you did not account for?

Defendant—I have a couple at home.

The Justice said it was clear that when the defendant got possession of the watches he knew they were not stolen, but he took a chance with the Revenue Commissioners, which did not come off.

Mr. Power said that he would take a conviction on the charge dealing with the 20 watches.

The Justice said he would impose an Excise penalty of £100 mitigated to £25. He could not make any order as to the forfeiture of the watches as they were not in Court.

NATIVE OF GLIN

DEATH OF PROVINCIAL

Mother Mary Florisenda (Mary Egan), O.S.F., Provincial of the St.
 Anthony's Province, Sisters of St.
 Francis, has died, reports Associated Press from Trenton, New Jersey. She was about 65.

She was born in Glin, Co.
 Limerick, and her parents took her to Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, when she was six. She served in the Order for 44 years.

She is survived by three sisters, Misses Nellie, Agnes and Margaret Egan, all of Bethlehem, and a brother, Mr. Thomas Egan, Denver, Colorado.

BACON INDUSTRY

Bacon pigs received at Twenty-Six County factories during the week ended Saturday last totalled 15,045 as compared with 6,293 during the corresponding week last year and 6,826 the year before.

BUILT WITHOUT LICENCES

Patrick R. Murphy, Barraduff, and David Daly, Scartaglen, Co. Kerry, were fined £25 each at Killarney for having built dance halls without building licences.

THE UNEMPLOYED

Registered unemployed on Decem-

...Benediction for children of the Sunday Oratory.

Mr. Brendan O'Regan, Catering Comptroller, Shannon Airport, speaking in the Old Ground Hotel, Ennis, on Saturday, where he was host at a dinner for American women writers.

LIMERICK LEADER Photo.]

SENT TO JAIL

DISORDERLY CONDUCT

Mrs. Kate McCarthy, 14 High Street, Limerick, and Mrs. Eileen O'Donoghue, also of High Street, were sent to jail for 14 days with hard labour by Justice D. F.
 Gleeson in the City District Court to-day.

The defendants were convicted of being drunk and disorderly in O'Connell Street on 5th December.

Two other defendants, who were also similarly charged, were fined 10/- each. They were Mrs. Mary McCarthy, 6 Taylor's Row, Limerick, and Mrs. Mary Faulkner, 14 High Street.

Guard McLoughlin gave evidence that the four defendants each had a baby in her arms, and they were very rowdy on the occasion, with the result that it took four Guards to bring them to the Garda Station.

Mr. J. S. McNeice, solicitor, who appeared for the McCarthys, said that a member of the fraternity had died, and as a result they were waking the remains and took drink.

Justice — A wake in O'Connell Street?

victim

TWO

The
 in Lim reporte has an interes who h what Laund facture and th to Lin industr develop by the or the Henry
 The tw in Lim
 as a re labour increas

FEVER

The City H pation from t an in minute modati isolatio ing of archite Pending building accom quarter had t tions, scarlat necessa

PALM

Many sugges Palmer
 More that t John martyr century lie bur of wh part. betwe Parish
 becam