

fully substituted. The defendant would also have to enter into his own bond to keep the peace for the next 12 months.

THE HOLY YEAR

THREE CARDINALS TO ASSIST POPE

At a Secret Consistory in Rome to-day the Pope named three Cardinals to assist the Holy Father at the opening of the Holy Year on Christmas Eve.

The Cardinals named by the Pope were:—Cardinal Alessandro-verde, Cardinal Licarna, both of Italy, and Cardinal Eugene Tisserant, of France.

The Pope, in the course of his address, made an appeal to all who had become separated from the Church to return, saying that in the Holy Year they might find a salutary movement towards the Church.

OVERCOME BY COAL FUMES

Fumes from a coal fire in their bedroom overcame Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hogan, "St. Anne's," Island View, Corbally, on Friday night. They were found in an unconscious state by a paying guest in the house, who happened to return home some time after Mr. and Mrs. Hogan had retired. They were removed to Barrington's Hospital and detained for treatment.

It was learned to-day that Mrs. Hogan was now completely recovered but Mr. Hogan, though somewhat improved, is still in a critical condition.

CITY STREET ACCIDENT

James Cullen, 2 O'Curry Place, Limerick, sustained injuries to his ribs when he came into collision with a motor car at the junction of Barrington Street and O'Connell Street on Friday night. At the time Mr. Cullen was riding a bicycle. He was removed to the City Home Hospital, where, it was learned, he is making good progress.

TWO KILLED EVERY TEN

might arise. If a fire effectively destroyed a publican's premises and he could not get his licence applied within 12 months to reconstructed or substituted premises, his interests might be in grave jeopardy.

BIG DEATH ROLL

TORNADOES IN AMERICA

A New York message says that forty-eight people lost their lives in the United States during the week-end as the result of tornadoes and blizzards. The districts most affected were Arkansas and Missouri.

DEATH OF MR. T. H. WILLIAMS, M.A.

With sincere regret we chronicle the demise of Mr. Thomas H. Williams, M.A., chartered accountant, which took place at his residence, "Springdale," Ennis Road, Limerick, yesterday, after a long illness.

The late Mr. Williams, who was born at Croaghtabeg, Co. Cork, was associated with the commercial life of Limerick for many years. He won the esteem and confidence of the general public by his straightforward disposition and many other fine traits of character. He took a great interest in the progress and welfare of his adopted city, and his death at an early age is universally regretted.

The funeral will take place tomorrow at 11 o'clock, following Service, from Trinity Church.

SKID CAUSES ACCIDENT

When cycling to her home, "St. Philomena's," Corbally, Limerick, on Friday evening, Miss Rita Hardiman sustained series injuries when she fell from her bicycle as the result of a skid. Miss Hardiman was conveyed home by neighbours and her many young friends will be glad to learn that she is making good progress to recovery.

CLEAN BILL OF HEALTH

According to a departmental return issued by the Limerick Corporation the city has a clean bill of necessitating her hospital. Of course alights from a 'bus described is just trouble. In any case breach of the regula hinted that for the will be prosecuted.

★
THAT RAT!

A workman who c sation the other day Assizes against his cause he was bitten had taken flight up trousers failed in h unnerving experienc is said, confined to Staffordshire. Accor stories many Limer from time to time, p unwillingly and u rodents in the legs o It is said that in o any rate, the intru by a handsqueeze-shake. These yarns r be taken with a gra the mouse that ran

★
COURTHOUSES.

Limerick will, n more than a passing resolution of the Council which calls ment to make the courthouses a char funds. For years County Council ha with the question of Courthouse and ju war an ideal site fo was secured throu spirited action of O'Mara. The City the time became par site, the idea bein Town Hall would b junction with the C ject. But the whole pigeon-holed and it could tell when the webs will be blown meantime the site is abandoned.

★
GARRYOWEN!

The name of Garr