

an exposure of maritime robbery. Players: William Gargan, Mary Beth Hughes, Richard Grane and Richard Travis. "Caged Fury" (support) is a murder melodrama with a circus background. It is a behind-the-scenes glimpse of life, love and death under the big top with the lion cage as the focal

BACK ON HOLIDAY AFTER ABSENCE OF 23 YEARS

After an absence of 23 years spent in Cleveland, Ohio, U.S.A., Mr. Martin Higgins, former Irish athlete, again set foot on Irish soil on Thursday of last week, when he arrived in Shannon Airport, having travelled over by American Airlines (writes our Killaloe correspondent). So impressed was he by the comfort afforded en route and the courtesy of the officials that he intends to make the return journey to America in mid-February by the same airline. Spotlight of the trip was his first glimpse of Erin as the plane flew over the Irish Coast and circled to land at Rineanna, and the warmth of the sea mile salute he received from relatives and friends on arrival, will long live in his memory. Mr. Higgins is spending some time with his brother, Mr. John Higgins, Killaloe. He plans to visit his sisters at Westport, Navan and Carlow. He is brother of Sister M. Laurence, Ashville Convent, North Carolina, U.S.A. In his younger days he was a noted athlete and helped to foster Irish games in the States since he emigrated. A grand personality, a great Catholic worker and a staunch Anti-Partitionist, he was very much impressed with the progress the country had made.

EXTRA LIGHT FOUR MORE LAMPS FOR "DROM"

During the past week (writes our Dromcollogher correspondent) the E.S.B. have provided additional public lighting for Dromcollogher, and thus a promise made many years ago, backed up by the support of the local Guild of Muintir na Tire, has at last been fulfilled. Four additional lamps have been provided and the allocation—two in the Square and one each in North ern, "Man From Colorado," has William Holden, Ellen Drew and Glenn Ford to relate its thrilling story.

Friday's "The Calendar" is a racing story from the pen of the late Edgar Wallace. Stars, Greta Gynt, John McCallum and Sonia Holm.

PASSING OF A GREAT PRELATE KEEN REGRET IN NATIVE ABBEEFFALE

The announcement of the death in Mauritius of His Grace, Archbishop James Leen, came as a great shock to his relatives in Abbeyfeale, where he had been expected home for Christmas, from a relief of his arduous duties in a diocese which at one time embraced the Continent of Australia (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). His life work in that far-off island in the Indian Ocean included the erection of seventeen churches. An illustration of his marvellous work emblazoned on a gold shield, presented to him by a grateful people, is at present in his old home at Leen's Hotel. His gentle, unassuming ways will not be soon forgotten by the people of his native town, amongst whom he had been always the unassuming, gentle and kindly prelate. His death is keenly felt by all who knew him, and many were the expressions of regret tendered to his bereaved sister, Mrs. Denis Murphy, Abbeyfeale.

OPERETTA AT KILLALOE

The Castleconnell Junior Dramatic Troupe, headed by the Revd. Father Whyte, C.C.; Miss Courtney, N.T., and Messrs. Holohan, N.T.; O'Sullivan, N.T., and McQuaid, visited Killaloe on Thursday evening of last week and very successfully staged that ever-popular operetta, entitled "Red Cap" (writes our Killaloe correspondent). The members of the troupe were admirably trained and their singing and acting evoked considerable applause. Miss Courtney, N.T., pianist, and Mr. M. Edmonds, violinist, who played the accompaniments, also merited great praise. Mr. Eddie Browne, the well-known popular tenor, got a wonderful ovation, and his rendering of six Anglo-Irish songs brought cheers from

Hon. Secretary, L.D.M.C., as as possible.

TEAMS.

Junior Selection—C. Be (St. John's Gate); S. Flainn (C.I.E.), J. Allen (Geraldines), O'Brien (St. John's Gate), Proctor (Shelburne), F. Co (Wembley Rovers) (capt.); Co (Janesboro'), Frawley (Pike ers), M. Lowe (Crescent Un Meaney (C.I.E.), G. Moloney Rovers).

Star Rovers—Caledonian ted—Madden (Caledonians), Hanrahan (Star Rovers), K. C laghan (Caledonians); P. I (Star Rovers), A. Quinlan (Ca nians), R. Peters (Star Rov M. Ronan (Star Rovers), P. C (Caledonians), J. Naughton Rovers), P. Lysaght (Caledon D. Healy (Caledonians).

Fixtures for Sunday, Jan 1st:—

Venue to be arranged—Re 3rd Round F.A.I. Junior Cup p.m.—Wembley Rovers v. Clo Referee, F. Coughlan.

Claughaun Field — 3rd F F.A.I. Junior Cup, 12 noon— Rovers v. Aer Lingus. Refer Fitzgerald.

Caledonian Park — 1st F Munster Junior Cup, 12 n Janesboro' United v. Caledo Referee, D. Lynch.

LIMERICK BOX

GOOD PERFORMANCE

DUBLIN

Much comment has been made in local boxing circles on the performance of J. Logan (St. Francis Limerick) in the Irish Junioring Championships in Dublin week-end. Many keen judges of the opinion that the Limerick boy was unlucky not to have gained the decision over G. in the semi-final of the light-division. Arnold went on to win the final easily.

CAROL SINGERS

KILLALOE

For the first time in the history of Royal Kincora (writes our Killaloe correspondent) carol singers specially trained by Mrs. N.T., paraded through the streets of Killaloe and Ballina on Sunday night last singing Christmas carols which were very much appreciated. The singers were enthusiastically welcomed everywhere they