prescriptions, because there might be a danger of their being incorrectly used. Therefore, the administration of the prescriptions will always have to be under the supervision of the doctors.

Mr. J. W. Canty, Co.C.—I suppose it would not be advisable to have a clinic in the centre of a street anywhere.

Dr. O'Higgins—It would be much better to have it in the open air than to have it in a hole or corner.
If people think there is something to be afraid or ashamed of in the clinics, they will not be a success.

MUST REMOVE STIGMA.

One of the aims of the clinics is to remove the stigma from mental illnesses. If we are to continue hiding away the location of treatment in holes and corners, we will never get away from that mentality and our progress in combating mental illness will be very slow.

Questioned by Ald. M. Hartney, the R.M.S. said that free treatment would be provided under Public Assistance.

After some further discussion, it was decided to leave the final arrangements for the opening of the clinics in the hands of Dr. O'Higgins.

RAILWAY PROMOTION

Mr. Patrick J. Herbert, Chief Clerk, C.I.E. Goods Department at Cork, has been appointed Assistant District Superintendent for the Cork area (writes our Charleville correspondent). Mr. Herbert is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Herbert, of the Turrets, Charleville, and has been connected with the railway service in a clerical capacity for over 25 years, and has also acted as relief stationmaster in various parts of the South of Ireland. An efficient and courteous member of the C.I.E. staff, his promotion to the rank of Assistant District Superintendent is a recognition of his capabilities by the Railway Company and his old friends and colleagues will tender to him their heartiest congratulations in his new appointment.

DEATH OF RETIRED TEACHER

MRS. B. CAHILL, KILDIMO

Deep and widespread regret was occasioned by the death of Mrs. B.
Cahill, Kildimo, who passed away at her residence on the 5th inst.
after a short illness. The deceased, who had been a very successful teacher, was principal of Kildimo National School for 45 years, retiring on pension with the good wishes and appreciation of all with whom her professional duties brought her into contact. She was relict of Mr. John Cahill, for many years a prominent and useful member of Rathkeale Board of Guardians and District Council, who passed away in 1941, and mother of Mr. Patrick Cahill, the present Manager of Bunratty Co-operative Creamery. The late Mrs. Cahill, who had passed the eighty mark, was a lady of many fine parts, and enjoyed the confidence and respect of a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances. To the bereaved family and relatives we extend our very sincere sympathy.

this (Monday) evening at 6 o'clock.
