

BIG ROBBERY

OVER HALF-A-MILLION STOLEN

A message received from New York to-day states that a most daring robbery was perpetrated in Boston during the night.

A number of armed men entered the offices of a transport company, held up and gagged the staff and then made off with cash to the value of £535,714.

To-day the police are combing fourteen States for the robbers. Two employees of the firm are also being sought.
