

KICKED DOOR

Men Refused "Cigs"

PER'S COMPLAINT

... old boy, who kicked the door of an old lady's parrydoolis, Pallasgreen, he wouldn't give him was charged at Pallas on Tuesday last with malicious damage to the was James McCarthy, the owner of the shop some time ago at night, nt gave the door a kick outside, knocking it off O'Dwyer said he was ne one night with the As they rode past the 's door the defendant ick with his boot. to Mr. L. Walsh Bennett and Walsh, nding, witness agreed rthy's kick amounted "tip of his boot-toe." eill said that when he defendant afterwards, refused to make a state- door itself, he said, was d and could easily be n its hinges. eeson said the charge s damage must fail in stances. He had, how- scretion to bind the de- the peace. in evidence, admitted door a "tip" with the oot. "Every time I went ettes," he said, "she re- hat dosen't entitle you ner door with a kick. ndant said he'd give an ot to interfere in fut- rs. Ryan or her property. nd I'll give you an un- at if you do you'll pay month in jail. I'll let time.

FROM Y.F.C.

ANNUAL MEETING

... annual general meet- Croom Young Farmers' held at the Vocational om on Monday night

OBITUARIES

Mr. Florence O'Connell, Abbeyfeale

The death of Florence O'Connell, of The Square, Abbeyfeale, which occurred unexpectedly on the 3rd of March, removed one of Abbeyfeale's most popular citizens at the age of 57. "Flor," as he was locally known, commanded the esteem and respect of many friends and relatives, which accounted for the large attendance of the public at the interment in St. Mary's Cemetery. He was a consistent member of the G.A.A. from his boyhood, and a prominent member of the well-known football team who lined up on more than one occasion for a county final in the championships. As a tribute to his memory the leaders of the G.A.A. Club, under Mr. Neilus Murphy, contributed a guard of honour prior to the removal of the remains and at the interment. The attendance of his many friends and the public from various parts of Limerick, Cork and Kerry at the funeral was the largest seen for many years in the district. It would be impossible to give a list of the numerous Mass cards, wires, and letters of sympathy received.

The prayers at the graveside were read by the Very Rev. P. Canon Carroll, P.P., V.F., Abbeyfeale; Rev. P. Ruddle, P.P., Ardagh; Rev. J. Halpin, C.C., and Rev. J. Liston, C.C., Abbeyfeale; Rev. D. McCarthy, C.C., Knockaderry; Rev. J. Browne, C.C., Bruff; Rev. T. Murphy, P.P., Roehampton, and Rev. D. Murphy, C.C., Tournafulla.

Chief mourners were:—Thomas O'Connell, Abbeyfeale; Michael O'Connell and Philip O'Connell, New York (brothers); Mrs. Nora Mulvihille, of Knockanure (sister); Mrs. Bridget O'Connell, Abbeyfeale; Mrs. Margaret O'Connell and Mrs. Sheila O'Connell, New York (sisters-in-law); Mr. M. Mulvihille, Knockanure (brother-in-law); Brendan, Daniel, John, Florence, Denis, Michael and Joan O'Connell, Abbeyfeale; Thomas, James, Mary and Denis O'Connell, New York (nephews and nieces).

Mr. W. G. Quaid, Ballykennedy

The death of Mr. William G. Quaid, Ballykennedy House, Clounagh, took place at his home

SPRING IS HERE!

For Beautiful Flowers Plant Now.
Bachelor Buttons, Brompton Stock, Canterbury Bells, Forget-Me-Not, Pansy, Viola and Sweet William—all 2/- doz.; 14/- 100.
Perennials—Arabis, Aubretia, Aquilegia Carnations, Russell Lupins, Gaillardia, Geums, Hollyhock—all 4/6 doz.; 30/- 100.
Siberian Wallflowers (gorgeous yellow) and Mixed Wallflowers, 7/6 100.

ALL PRICES POST FREE.

Our New Spring Catalogue of Seeds and Plants post free from—

McCarthy's Nurseries,
DEPT. 6,

CLONAKILTY

Phone—Clonakilty 5.
(4-11-18-25c)

EMIGRATED 52 YEARS AGO

The death took place recently in the United States of Mr. John J. Shaughnessy, a native of Askeaton, Co. Limerick. A New York paper has the following obituary:— "John J. Shaughnessy, 84, of 125 Harding Place, died on February 21st, 1950, in his home after a two-month illness.

Mr. Shaughnessy was born in Askeaton, County Limerick, Ireland, in December 19th, 1865, a son of the late John and Catherine Sullivan Shaughnessy. He came to this country and to Utica when he was 21 years old.

"Mr. Shaughnessy was a foreman in the McLoughlin Cap Factory for 40 years and retired in 1932. He married Miss Mollie McCabe here in July 5th, 1911, in St. Francis de Sales Church, of which he was a member. He also was a member of its Holy Name Society, the Purgatorian Society and Utica Council 189, Knights of Columbus.

"Mr. Shaughnessy leaves his widow, a sister, Mrs. Margaret McNamara, Utica, and several nieces and nephews."

Interment was in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

M
T

... and, e
'Monard'
you to do t
efficiently, effort. 'Mo
scientificaf perfectly easy use,
they're har
solid steel their kee temper th
life.
For five ever since farmers
'Monard' quality an

Made on L
by your

NEW

FR

(f)