In a graveyard, Mount St. Lawrence's, 13 years ago, to-day,
We have laid our darling mother,
In her bed of earthly clay;
Gone from us, but not forgotten.
You were always kind and true,
In our hearts your memory lingers,
To the sad ones left behind.
As I pass along that graveyard,
I can always see the spot.
And the last words briefly spoken,
Were the ones forget-me-not.
Some forgot you, mother dearest,
In the first year of our pain,
But the ones you loved so dearly,
Will for ever be the same.
The home now changed in many ways,
That we have left for ever,
The memories past, now we hold fast.

Of our one and only mother,
Will those who have a mother,
Cherish her with care,
For you will never know the heart-break,
Until you see her vacant chair.
— Fondly remembered by her loving husband, sons and daughters.

DAWSON (Fifth Anniversary) — In loving memory of my dear mother, who died on April 7, 1945, at her residence 86 O'Dwyer Villas, Thomondgate. Masses offered.

I miss her smile, her cheery way,
I miss the things she used to say,
And when old times we oft recall,
It's then I miss you most of all.
— Inserted by her loving daughter, Della.
