He hung up his togs as a player some 4 years ago, but did not actively from the sport, continuing as a referee in which he officiated in all classes of football, from juvenile to senior. He was also interested in tennis, basketball and hockey, and this year was President of the M.A. Sports Club. His departure will be a big loss to sport generally in the city, but especially in rugby circles, and on the part of all devotees of the oval. In my own behalf, I wish him the best of luck.

Best in Leinster Cup Final.
Whether U.C.D. or Lansdowne will win the Leinster Senior Cup tomorrow at least one Limerick man will receive a medal. On the National side are Jim Roche (Old Crescent) and Mick O'Connell (Garryowen), at stand-off and wing, respectively. Roche has been making a big name for himself in the Metropolis and is expected to go places. Another Old Crescent player, Patrick O'Connell, has been receiving a very favourable press as Lansdowne's back. Both he and Roche played on the winning Crescent Senior XV of 1948.

DEATH OF MRS. B. HOGAN

The death occurred yesterday of Mrs. Brigid Hogan at the residence of her son-in-law, Colonel Austin Brennan, Meelick, Co. Clare, a member of the Advisory Committee of the Military Service Pensions Board.

The deceased was relict of P. J. Hogan (Land Commission), of Coolreigh, Bodyke, an uncle of the late Mr. P. J. Hogan, Minister for Agriculture in the Cosgrave regime.

During the Black-and-Tan campaign the Hogan homestead was a place of refuge for the East Clare Flying Column, and as a result it was frequently raided by the Auxiliaries stationed at Killaloe. Mrs. Hogan's son, Dr. James Hogan, Kanturk, was an active member of the column. He served in the National Army for a period.

A lady of great charm of manner, Mrs. Hogan was held in very high regard and esteem, and her death will be learned of with deep regret and sorrow.

The remains will be removed to Parteen Church this (Friday) evening, and the funeral will take place to-morrow, after Requiem High Mass, to Co. Meath.

DEATH OF MR. PATRICK HARTIGAN

We regret to record the death of Mr. Patrick Hartigan, Inchmore, Limerick, which took place in the County Infirmary yesterday after a long illness. The deceased, who had reached an advanced age, was an extensive farmer in the Parish of Donoughmore, where he was held in the highest esteem and regard. Very deep sympathy is tendered to his son and daughters—Mrs. Frank Downes, Mrs. James Joyce and Mrs. O'Driscoll—and other relatives in their bereavement.

The remains were removed last night to Janesboro Church, the cortege being of very large proportions. The interment took place to-day in Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, mourners having come from far and near to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased.
