

ANGLERS

There was a large attendance of salmon and trout anglers at the Abbey Hall, Abbeyfeale, at which Mr. J. Daly presided, and when it was decided to form a Federation of Feale Anglers (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). There were members of the different associations present from Tralee, Listowel, Brosna, Duagh and Abbeyfeale. The Brosna Association was congratulated on the success of the hatchery. On the 16th April, 20,000 salmon ova were released. Other important matters were discussed as to the best methods of improving the Feale fisheries.

RUNAWAY HORSE AT ABBEYFEALE

A horse took flight from Church Street, Abbeyfeale, and with a fallen winker round his legs galloped furiously towards the Main Street. Entering the latter (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent) he rushed madly forward as if about to crash through Harnett's, narrowly missing a motor and a child. He struck the gable at Leen's Hotel, tore along the side near the plate glass window, and tumbled on the footpath at the door, where he was held down until released.

of land reclamation are held up already for lack of the very type of pipe we are making," he said. "Of course, farmers who do the reclamation work on their own farms themselves will also want the product.

DIRECT DELIVERIES TO PURCHASERS.

Deliveries will be made directly to the purchasers. Eventually, more machinery will be installed and before long, with the extra men we take on, we hope to increase output to 15,000 pipes a day and to extend in other directions as well."

Mr. O'Dwyer said the industry was being run entirely on Irish capital, most of it local.

Managing Director is a Dublin business man, Mr. F. J. McLoughlin. The three other directors are Mr. O'Dwyer, Mr. C. S. Barry, Limerick, and Mr. G. I. Counihan, Dublin.

ASKEATON Y.F.C.

The annual general meeting of the Askeaton Young Farmers' Club was held on Monday, April 17th. There was a large attendance and Mr. T. J. Moran presided.

The Secretary gave a detailed account of the progress of the Club since its formation some time last year.

The following were the officials and committee elected for 1950:—

President, Rev. T. O'Dea, C.C.; Chairman, Mr. T. J. Moran; Vice-Chairmen, Messrs. T. Hanly and Thomas Lynch; Hon. Secretary, Mr. James Hanly; Assistant Hon. Secretary, Mr. J. J. Holland; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. Ed. Moran.

Committee—Messrs. J. O'Shaughnessy, M. O'Kelly, S. O'Donoghue, J. J. Sheehy, T. Cooney, Michael O'Shaughnessy, James Hurley, M. O'Carroll and J. Foley.

SALMON ANGLING IN THE FEALE

There were more salmon anglers active along the Feale, above and below Abbeyfeale, than have been seen there previously for many seasons (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). The results were satisfactory, catches running from 8 to 16 lbs.
