LIMERICK CATTLE MARKET WEEKLY MARKET, SATURDAY, APRIL 22.

Dairy Cows and Heifers .- The entry, which totalled 170 head, was easily the heaviest entry of the season, and a record for Limerick Market. The quality of the cows and heifers, especially the former, was again exceptionally high and with a most representative attendons); Mrs. E. McGrath ance of buyers from many parts of the country, and with entries from eight different counties, they had an excellent selection to choose from. Trade for the good cows and heifers held firm, the demand for the promising young dairy cow with milking qualities being again keen. Trade for the incalf and calved heifers, particularly the secondary classes, showed an easing off in values as compared with recent quotations, but where vendors were disposed to make concessions exchanges for this description were omey, Mr. P. Halpin and readily effected, a remarkably high percentage of the entry changed hands under the hammer, the clearance and turnover exceeding by a considerable margin the previous record for this market.

Top price of the sale went to Mr. MS AND MASS CARDS. Co. Mayo, at 50 guineas, for a calved ns were received from cow. Mr. Denis Ryan, Coolishal, Caherconfish, was the runner-up in this department, at 46 gns. Top price for heifers went to Mr. Malachy McKenna, yes, Minister for Local Borrisokane, Co. Tipperary, at 48 gns.. nt; Ald. Dan Bourke, Mr. Matt. Mitchell, Grange, being the ers. W. H. White and Co., runner-up in this department, at 46 gns. Incalf and calved cows, best, £44 10s. to £50; seconds, £40 to £44; others, £33 5s. to £39; small, £26 to £31. Incalf and calved heifers, best. £43 to £48; seconds, £41 to £42 10s.: others, £35 5s. to £40; small, £28 to £33 10s.; stripper cows, £15 to £19 10s.

Store Cattle. -- Numerically the entry was up to last week's figure, with many lots of strong stores and a very good selection of yearlings. Buyers were in good attendance out bidding not as free as at last market; a number of lots of useful stores remained unsold. The clearance and turnover were, however, again heavy. Two and a half year old bullocks and heifers, best £29 15s. to £33 10s. Two yearold bullocks and heifers, best, £25 5s. to £28; seconds, £23 to £24 10s. OBITUARIES

Mr. P. Nihill, Old Pallas

Widespread regret, was felt in Pallas and surrounding districts at the recent death, after a very short illness, of Mr. Patrick Nihill, of The Square, Old Pallas. Deceased. who came of an old and much respected family, passed away in Croom Hospital at the comparatively early age of $7.

Possessed of a keen wit and a very optimistic turn of mind, he was a general favourite with all classes, more especially the younger generation, to appreciated his company at all local functions. Energetic in all its actions and himself wholeideas, he threw heartedly into any movement which had for its object the betterment of his fellow-worker. His honesty, sobriety and strict adherence to the Faith were too well known to need any comment.

Proof of the esteem in which he was held was evidenced by the huge concourse of mourners and the general public who attended funeral from the Parish Church to the family burial ground at Old Pallas, and expressions of sincere sympathy were heard on all sides at the rather sudden demise of such a gental soul and public character.

At the graveside the officiating clergy were: Very Rev. P. Canon Ryan, P.P., Nicker, assisted by Rev. Father Fitzgerald, C.C., do.

Deceased leaves a wife to mourn his loss.

Mr. P. Houlihan, Newcastle

Much regret has been occasioned by the death of Patrick Houlihan, Maiden Street, Newcastle West, petition will be held who passed away recently after alduring the same period rather long illness. Aged only 37 years, deceased, who belonged to an esteemed family, was son of Mr. Section Competition. John Houlihan, and was, like his father, associated with the old established coopering trade in the town for many years. Of a quiet and unassuming disposition, the late Mr. Houlihan enjoyed the esteem and respect of all sections and sympathy will be tendered to the bereaved father, brothers and sisters. There was a large and representative attendance at the funeral to Churchtdwn Cemetery. Rt. lonsignol Hannan P.P., V.G.; Rev. D. Costelloe, C.C.; Rev. M. Kelly, C.C. and Rev. Father Fitzsimons, C.S.R., officiated at the graveside. Chief mourners included: John Houlihan (father). Eugene (brother), Margaret Houlihan and Mrs. Brown (sisters). Patrick, Thomas and Margaret Houlihan, Maiden Street, etc. crelatives).
