Mr. Con Walsh, Griston, Ballylanders

The death took place after a prolonged illness on Thurs., May 11th, of Mr. Con Walsh, Griston, Ballylanders. The deceased was a member of a highly esteemed and widely respected family. Evidence of the respect and esteem in which the deceased was held was the huge cortege of mourners, relatives and the general public, representing every section of the community, that escorted the remains to Glenbrohane Church on Friday evening, May 12th. The funeral to the family burial ground at Knockaney was even greater on Saturday, especially as the remains passed through Elton, Bottomstown and Knockaney, where the late Con Walsh was ever popular and respected.

The clergy who officiated at the Requiem Mass and the graveside were—Rev. Father Sampson, P.P.; Rev. Father Kennedy, C.C., Knocklong; Rev. Father Dunne, P.P.; Rev. Father Morris C.C., Ballylanders; Rev. Fr. Crowley, Ballylanders; Rev. Father Foley, P.P., Knockaney; Rev. Father O'Malley, C.C., Knockaney; Rev. Father Power, Kilfinane; Rev. Father Cooke, C.C., New Inn; Rev. Father Kelly, C.C., Granagh.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. Catherine Walsh (widow), John Walsh (son), Mary K. and Nancy (daughters), Michael Walshe (brother), Mrs. Minnie Kelly (sister), Mrs. K. Condon (mother-in-law), David and Willie Condon (brothers-in-law), Mrs. David Walsh, Mrs. David Condon, Mrs. Roger O'Donnell (sisters-in-law), Jackie, Mossie and James Walsh, Jackie, James, William, Joseph and Robert Ryan (nephews), Mrs. Annie O'Keefe, Miss Eileen Kelly, Mrs. Julia McCarthy, Mrs. Mary McCarthy, Mrs. Sarah Walsh, Mrs. Dolly Cleary, Mrs. K. O'Loughlin, Mrs. J. Chamberlain and Mrs. D. Judge (nieces).

A great amount of Mass cards, wreaths, telegrams and messages of sympathy were received. The leading members of Limerick's farming community, as well as prominent business people and members of the medical profession attended the interment.
