(MAHON)

he may be at the other end. Andit is a highwayman on the road, or, currently, a book-keeper. Khorassan—khan he or she? That is the khuestion. MAIN ROAD TO CAVAN? Andit might have the half of them—I wonder if Milton would approve? Main minds me as the man asked on an occasion—"Would this be the main road to Cavan," and was of course it is; the further the mainer it gets." Matty—sounds like too much name for a round sharp corner. And Bonaparte found some of those paths of glory, as the Route Napoleon, led to Waterloo, via Moscow. New is your man who has just made the pledge and won't keep it for a week. Paradiso is the place where all good Italians go when is one that won't need any carpet to get into the first. Peter Fox II is one that will fall off if the Galway Blazers say anything to say in the matter. Platter might run well if he lives up to his name and has a plate. Port o' Light is a lighthouse attached. YANK CORNER FAST? Simon, American-bred, still does not know whether or not he can corner fast

's Choice is obviously Narri-dek. Molony rides Stenigot, sounds like what the commander said when he apologised for his in Normandy. Telegram II is top, others going too fast, have to stop, stop.

er trod on one of my feet last time out. I hope his horse don't get anywhere near the to-morrow. Vieux Manoir, a pension house, H. and C., seven stalls, stabling for half a mil-

DEATHS.

CARGIN (Limerick)—On May 26, 1950, at his residence, Ennis Road, Rev. William Cargin, M.A., Senior Minister, Limerick and Ennis Presbyterian Churches. Service on Sunday at 4 p.m. at Presbyterian Church, Limerick. Funeral immediately afterwards to St. Mary's.

RONAN (nee Frahill)—May 22, 1950, at her residence, 37 Verinilgea Ave., New York City, beloved wife of Bobby Ronan, former Young Munster player, deeply regretted by her loving husband and family, aunt and relatives.

IN MEMORIAM.

BEGLEY (First Anniversary)—In loving memory of my dear mother, Ellen Begley, who died at her home, Pollock, Croom, May 23, 1949. Mass offered. On her soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Gone from us, that smiling face.

The cheerful, pleasant ways,
The heart that won so many friends,
In bygone, happy days.
—Inserted by her loving daughter, Katie; son-in-law, Michael, and grandchildren. (c)

BEGLEY (First Anniversary) — In sad and loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Ellen Begley, Pollock, Croom, who died May 23, 1949. Sweet Jesus, have mercy on her soul.

Sleep in peace, O dearest mother,
Thou art happy, thou art blest;
Earthly cares and sorrows ended,
Nought can break thy holy rest.

—Inserted by her loving husband, daughter, Christina, and grandson, Tonia. (c)

BENSON (Tenth Anniversary)—In loving memory of Samuel Benson, who was drowned on May 20, 1940. On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered.—Inserted by his sons and daughters.

CLANCY (Second Anniversary)—In loving memory of our dear mother, whose anniversary is to-day, late of 14 Sexton Street. Masses offered.

Your smiles were many, your pleasures few,
You never deserved what you went through;

I saw you slowly fading as I watched you night and day,
And often with a broken heart, I asked God to let you stay.

—Inserted by her loving daughter and grandchildren, Phyllis, Dermot and Jack.

CLARKE (Fifth Anniversary) — In sad and loving memory of my dear son, Stephen, 20 Mount Pleasant Ave., who died on May 21, 1945 (aged 15½ years). Masses offered.

Jesus came one morning
To His garden of beautiful flowers,
He touched the roses one by one,
And plucked this one of ours.

—Sadly missed by your loving mam, brothers and sisters.

COFFEY (Second Anniversary)—In sad and loving memory of our dearest mother, Hanora Coffey, who died on Whit Saturday, May 15, 1948, late of 12 Madden's Row, off Edward Street, Our Lady of Limerick, intercede for her. Masses offered.

It's lonely here without you, mother,
And sad the weary day,
The world is not the same to us,
Since you were called away.

We dream we see your smiling face,
And kiss your still cold brow,
We find it hard to realise,
We have no mother now.

—Inserted by her loving family.
