

Luimneac (Limerick)

MINOR HURLING, 2.15 P.M. S.T. SENIOR HURLING, 3.45

Out 1pce, 1/6

Tab-Line, 3/-

SPECIAL TRAINS from Galway, Cork, Waterford, Nenagh, Cashel, Thurles, Horse and Jockey, Birr, Kingsbridge, Mallow, Tralee.

SEE RAILWAY COMPANY'S ADVERTISEMENTS.
(10-17c)

N.A. AND C.A.I.

HURLING TOURNAMENT FINAL AT ADARE, SUNDAY NEXT

Cup (presented by Messrs. Bee Moynihan & Co., Limerick) and Medals

DROMARD-RATHKEALE (Co. Champions, 1948) v. BRUREE (South Champions, 1949)

3.15, O.T.

Referee, T. O'SULLIVAN (Army)

PRECEDED BY MINOR HURLING CHALLENGE—

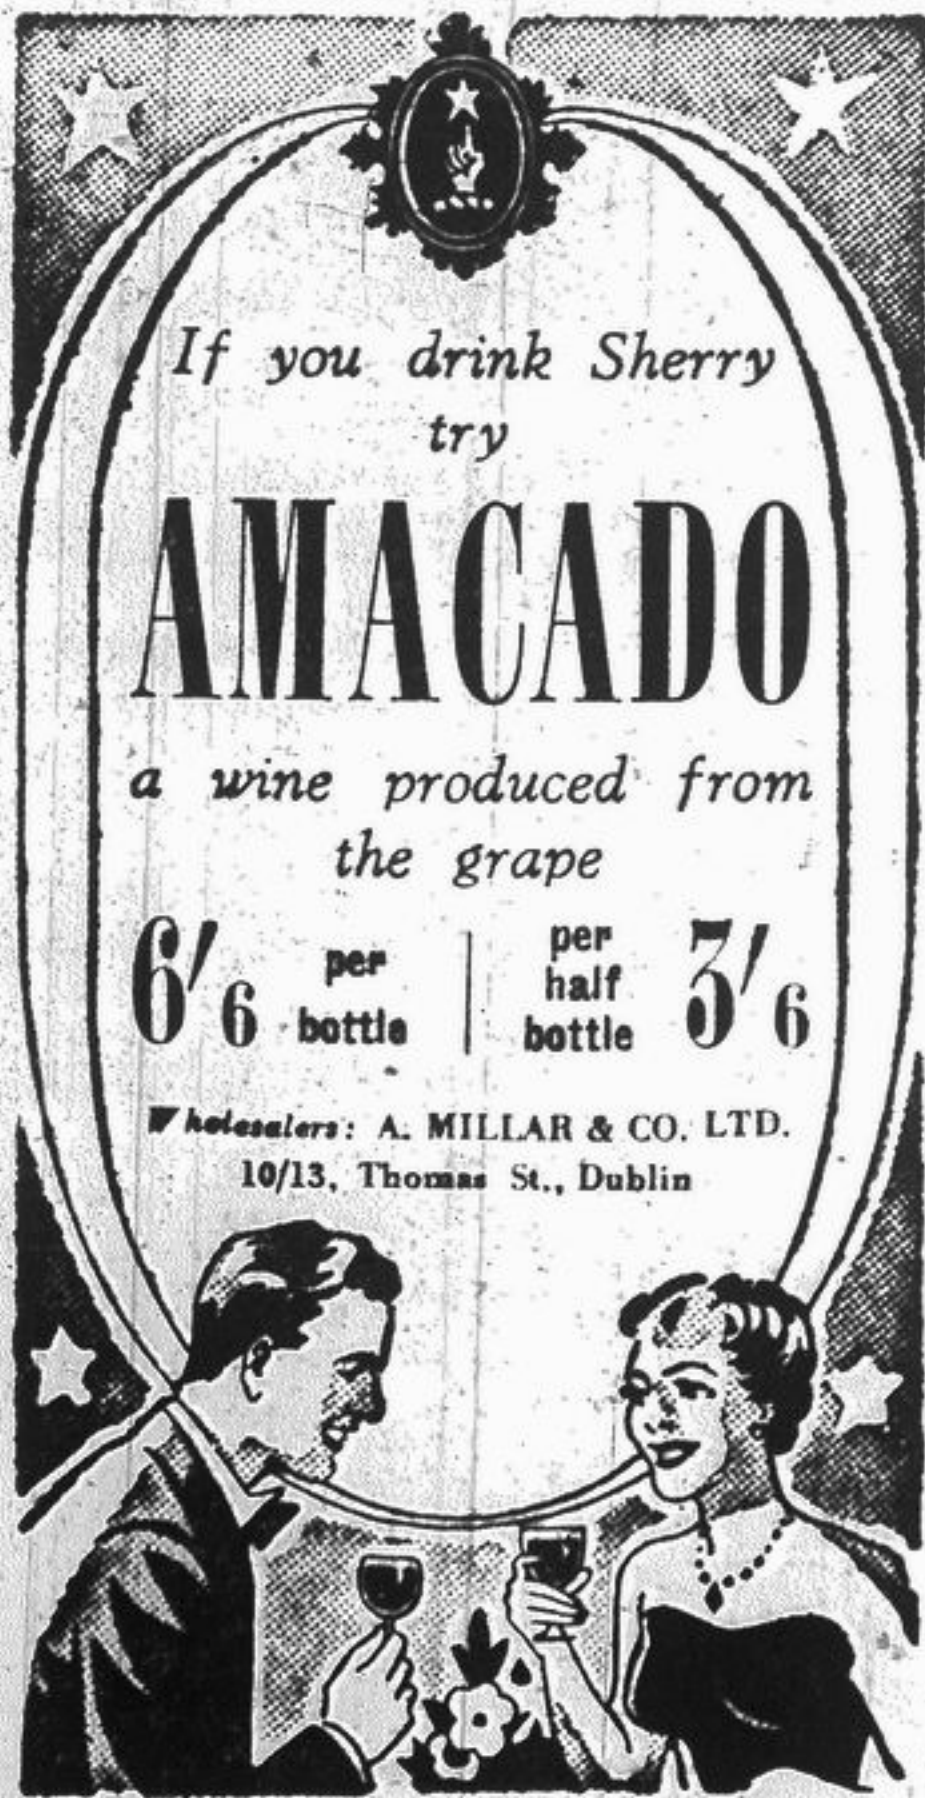

BRUREE v. KILDIMO

2 o'clock, O.T.

Train leaves Limerick, 2 o'clock, S.T. Fare, 1/10.

ADMISSION, 1/-.

SCHOOL CHILDREN, 3d.

If you drink Sherry
try AMACADO
a wine produced from the grape

6/6 per bottle | per half bottle 3/6

Wholesalers: A. MILLAR & CO. LTD.
10/13, Thomas St., Dublin

FOR Mass Cards, In Memoriam Cards and Acknowledgment Cards, apply to the "Limerick Leader." Large range of latest designs.

NONEGENARIAN PASSES

AWAY

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Daly, widow of the late Martin Daly, of Caherlane, Abbeyfeale, occurred in her 90th year, and removes from her district a lady who was highly esteemed and respected by many friends and relatives in West Limerick and Kerry. Deceased was the mother of the Rev. D. Daly, P.P., of Mattoon, Illinois, U.S.A.

There was a very large attendance of the public at the removal of the remains to Abbeyfeale Parish Church, where Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated. Rev. Father Colbert, C.C., was celebrant; Rev. J. Halpin, C.C., deacon; Rev. W. Lane, U.S.A., sub-deacon; Rev. J. Liston, C.C., master of ceremonies. Very Rev. P. Canon Carroll, P.P., V.F., presided.

A large funeral accompanied the remains to Brosna, where the interment took place, and there the Rev. Father Tangney, P.P., and Rev. Father Scanlan, C.C., assisted at the prayers at the graveside.

PAID WELL

Four tons of early potatoes grown on less than an acre of land by Mr. James Pettit Ballycushane, Co. Wexford, have been sold for £30 a ton.

but critical band of support make the Gaelic Gro rendezvous as the tr
gresses. Season after se faithful followers hav form" there before big candidates for honours before a more discerni
In the Limerick team as there are a few surpris
—and equally so omissi theless it has been fair ceived by the critics—ar much as can be said for tions. Anyway, every m and child in Limerick outside its borders — v well in the big task ab rick's clashes with Tip always hard, close and Shannonsiders were del of luck last year and c serve a break this time home sod they will ha support but Tipperary a championship fighters leave no stone unturne throw the green and wh
the second year in succ know Limerick will ta for granted this time. Th year with disastrous re Paddy Collopy will sticks and will also likel the side. He has played well for his club and co he first-figured in t baoghail, some five year Limerick followers confi to him to match in br vis-a-vis, Tony Reddan.

Filling the full-back newcomer to most Limer
ters — Donal Broderick collogher. Fortified with tial club reputation, an standing defender in game, at Kilmallock, ro things are expected from
"flankers" are Jim S Paddy Kelly—the form
our best defenders in ro who can usually be reli spike the guns of th score-getters; and Kelly greatest club hurlers game, but up to this, a lucky in county colours.

Most of Tipperary's ning flags came from yards mark, and if our l tin, Stokes and O'Shea their own then Lime could soar rapidly. Jo rose to the occasion in r last year, and a repro that form is all that w body doubts the abilit genuine sportsman and Dick Stokes—to hold h
any hurling company, welcome news to Limer ters that he hurled—as v he did in the rece Championship ties. F
Seamie O'Shea—the fast the team—is the ideal ba ter the lightning moves Ryan, and if this up a son of former Croom
star—Jack O'Shea, pla