THE PADDOCKS, LIMERICK WEEKLY DAIRY MARKET

Tuesday, June 6—Full seasonable entry, equal to last week; mostly all dairy cows. Small attendance. Some promising medium sized dairy cows on offer. The warm weather had its effect on trade, and consequently business was quiet. Customers present were easily able to fill their requirements. Where sales effected, current prices ruled. Secondary cows and heifers did not attract attention; all round business was quiet and market failed to clear. Top price for dairy cows went to Mr. Thomas Campbell, Morelands, Clonlara, at £40 (three times); he was also the runner-up at £37 10s. (twice). Dairy cows, promising, £35 to £40; ordinary, £31 to £34. Calved heifers, small, £20 to £30.—Wm B. Fitt and Co., Auctioneers.

WM. B. FITT AND CO'S PROPERTY SALES
Residence, "Glencove," N.C.R., Limerick.

On Friday last, June 2, at the Sales-rooms, 46 O'Connell Street, Limerick, Messrs. Wm. B. Fitt and Co., Auctioneers, offered for sale by auction for Mr. James Joyce, this attractive and delightfully situated semi-detached residence, which is beautifully fitted and equipped with all modern conveniences. The residence is being sold by lease for 999 years, subject to the yearly rent of £12. P.L.V., £22 (with two-thirds remission of rates for 3 years). The bidding opened at £1,000, and steadily advanced to £1,725; the reserve price, however, was not reached and the residence was withdrawn; subsequently a higher offer was received. The residence is now for sale by private treaty, or will be let. Mr. James J. Sexton, solicitor, 101 O'Connell St., Limerick, had carriage of sale.

Emerald Villas, 33 Clare Street, Limerick

This small residence, which was offered for sale by auction on Friday, May 26, and withdrawn, has since been sold to Mr. P. G. Collins, solicitor, 11 Glentworth Street, Limerick, in trust, for Mr. and Mrs. Hayes, Achunkard Street, Limerick, for £400 and fees. Tenure: Lease, 350 years at yearly rent of £2. P.L.V., £6. Mr. Noel P. Shee, solicitor, 56 O'Connell Street, Limerick, had carriage of sale.—Wm. B. Fitt and Co., Auctioneers.

THE PADDOCKS, LIMERICK WEEKLY CATTLE AND SHEEP MARKET

Wednesday, June 7—Cattle—Entries about the same as last market. In beef section some useful medium weighted heifers and bullocks on offer; attendance not as strong as previous markets. Prima small heifers in most

"I hear a voice you cannot hear,
Which says I must not stay;
I see a hand you cannot see,
Which beckons me away."
—Inserted by his brothers, sisters, nephews and nieces.

CHAMBERLAIN (Second Anniversary)—In loving memory of my dear husband, Arthur Chamberlain, Castleconnell, who died June 9, 1948. On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered.—Inserted by his loving wife and Baby John.

COLLINS (Second Anniversary)—In sad and loving memory of Lance Collins, who died June 9, 1948, late 4 County View Terrace, Ballinacurra. —Always remembered by parents, brother and sisters.

COLLINS (Third Anniversary)—In sad and loving memory of our dearest mother, Elizabeth Collins, who died on June 9, 1947, late of 5 Bengal Terrace, Cork Road. Sweet Jesus, have mercy on her. Masses offered.

It's lonely here without you, mother,
And sad the weary day;
The world is not the same to us,
Since you were called away.
We dream we see your smiling face,
And kiss your still cold brow;
We find it hard to realise
We have no mother now.
—Sadly missed by her loving husband, sons and daughters.

DEVITT (Second Anniversary)—In loving memory of Michael Devitt, late of 133 Hyde Road, Prospect, who died on June 6, 1948. St. Anthony, pray for him.

The years are passing quickly,
Just two of them to-day we had,
To rest the child we loved,
But whom we could not save.
We know he is in heaven and would not him recall,
For at the feet of Jesus he is pleading for us all.

—Inserted by his loving dad, mam, sister and brothers.

DOUPE (First Anniversary)—Loving and treasured memories of my dearest sister, Harriett (Harriet), the Lodge, Ballysteen whom God called home on June 12, 1949.

It's lonely here without you, Harrie,
And sad the weary day
The home is not the same to me
