DEATH OF LIMERICK LADY IN U.S.A.

The death took place recently at Arlington, United States, of Miss Beatrice (Bee) McSweeney, daughter of the late Thomas and Mary McSweeney, Rathbane House, Limerick.

The deceased, who was a nurse by profession, went to the United States 23 years ago and news of her death, after a brief illness, has been learned of with the deepest regret and sorrow. Deep sympathy is tendered to her brothers—Joseph and George—and her sister, Miss Eileen McSweeney, in their bereavement.

BRUFF MISSION

A fortnight's mission held in SS. Peter and Paul's Church, Bruff, for the men and women of the parish closed amid inspiring scenes, with renewal of Baptismal Vows and the imparting of Apostolic Benediction to a very large congregation.

All ceremonies of the Mission were very well attended, including morning Masses and evening devotions. The period of the Mission was divided into one week for the men of the parish and the second week for the women of the parish.

The ceremonies were conducted by Rev. Fathers Berry and O'Brien, both of the Redemptorist Order.

MOLONEY (Sixth Anniversary)—In loving memory of Mrs. Bridget Moloney, late of Killenoughty Cottage, Croom, who died on June 29, 1944. Masses offered.

Let the fervent prayer unceasing,
And the tears in silence shed,
Plead with Thee, O Heart of Jesus,
For our loved one who is dead.

—Inserted by her loving children.
MOLONEY (Sixth Anniversary)—In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Moloney, late of Killenoughty Cottage, Croom, who died on June 29, 1944. Masses offered.

We had a mother, a mother we loved,
To-night she sleeps in Heaven above,
The sweetest rest that follows pain,
We would not wake her to suffer again.

—Inserted by Michael, Kitty and children.

MOLONEY (Sixth Anniversary)—In loving memory of Mrs. Moloney, late of Killenoughty Cottage, Croom, who died on June 29, 1944. Masses offered.

Tho' your smile is gone forever,
And your hand we cannot touch,
We shall never lose sweet memories
Of you we loved so much.

—Inserted by Paddy, Hannah and children.
MOLONEY (Sixth Anniversary)—In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Bridget Moloney, late of Killenoughty Cottage, Croom, who died June 29, 1944. On her soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered.

There's a little link death cannot sever,
Love and remembrance live for ever.

—Inserted by Peg, John J and children.

Life's dream is past,
All its pain, its sadness,
Brightly at last,
Dawns a day of gladness
Under Thy sod,
Earth, receive our treasure
To rest in God,
Waiting all His pleasure

—Inserted by her loving son, Ger.
O'DOHERTY (First Anniversary)—In ever loving memory of our darling, Dolores (Doris), late of 5 Violet Villas, Thomondgate, who died on July 2, 1949. On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered.

To have, to love, and then to part
Is the saddest pain of a mother's heart.

Forgotten by some in this world
You may be,
But never forgotten one moment by me.

—Inserted by her loving parents, sisters and brother.

O'DONOGHUE (First Anniversary)—In sad and loving memory of Michael O'Donoghue, Mungret, who died July 8, 1949.

Will those who think of him to-day,
A little prayer to Jesus say,
The sorrow I feel, I cannot explain,
The ache in my heart will always remain.

Although I smile and seem carefree,
No one misses you more than me.

—Inserted by his loving sister, Rose, and family.
