

er, and that he was anxious to get rid of the animal as quickly as possible.

Mr. Cussen—I suggest that you are anxious to get rid of the heifer as quickly as possible because you knew she had a cough and you were afraid of her?—That is not true at

Further questioned, defendant said when he told plaintiff he had killed the heifer himself out of a good cow, he merely wanted to raise up the animal as was usually done in the sale of cattle.

Justice—It is evidently done.

Mr. Cussen—I don't know if it is the same as it was done in this case.

Defendant—Everyone selling cattle praises them when he wants to sell.

WANTED HIM TAKE BACK THE HEIFER.

Continuing, defendant said he had never met plaintiff at Newcastle West fair on 12th December, and plaintiff told witness there would be no law about the heifer. Plaintiff wanted him to take back the heifer and return him the price of the animal.

This concluded the evidence and the Justice said he would look into the evidence and give his decision at the August Court.

brakes remedied and had not been driving criminally or negligently on the occasion of the accident.

The Justice said the car should not have been on the road with the brakes in such a defective condition. He allowed £6 15s. 0d. for expenses and a month for payment of these and the fines.

DEATH OF MR. PATRICK GLYNN

A widely popular citizen passed away last night in the person of Mr. Patrick Glynn, 72 Mungret Street. The deceased had reached an advanced age, being somewhere about the eighty mark. He had been in the employment of Messrs. Francis Spaight for sixty years or so, acting as stevedore for them for a very lengthy period. He represented the Irishtown Ward in the Limerick Corporation for several years, proving himself an unselfish and active worker in the interests of his constituents and of the city in general. He was also for a number of years a useful member of Limerick Harbour Board. The late Mr. Glynn was a man of many fine qualities and characteristics and enjoyed, as he deserved, the full confidence and esteem of all who knew him. Of high principles, he was ever ready to help a good cause and both in his private and public capacities he was held in very warm regard. To his bereaved family and relatives we extend our very sincere sympathy on his demise.

The remains will be removed to St. John's Cathedral at 7.30 (this Monday) evening. Requiem High Mass will be celebrated in the Cathedral at 10.30 a.m. to-morrow (Tuesday) and the funeral will take place at 2 p.m. on the same day to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

WILL NEVER ANSWER 'PHONE AGAIN

George Bernard Shaw will be 94 to-morrow. His housekeeper in England says he is very well. His diet consists of grated raw vegetables—which he loves—and fruit juice. All he does at the moment, according to her, is to stroll around his garden. Mr. Shaw, she says, will never answer the telephone again.

U.S. RESOLUTION ON PARTITION

It is anticipated that the Foreign Affairs Committee will consider next week a thirty-third word resolution on the Partition question. The resolution, which has been evolved from a series of others, reads:—"In order to encourage a peaceful and quiet settlement in Ireland, it is hereby resolved that the House of Representatives of the United States of America favours the unification of Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland."

Representative John E. Fogarty, who is the militant agitator for the introduction of the resolution, to-day he believed the British Government would attempt to straighten out the Partition question were it not that it would involve them in a political crisis which might lead to their downfall in an election.
