CHAMPION JOCKEY BEREAVED

News reached Waterford yesterday that Mrs. Isabel Moloney, wife of the famous Co. Limerick jockey, Tim Moloney, champion steeplechase rider this year and last, died at her English home, Sycamore House, Hefewell, Lincoln, yesterday morning. Her husband had been attending the August meeting at Tramore with his brother, Martin, the equally famous jockey, who rode four winners at the Tramore races on Wednesday. With his brother, Martin, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Halley, wife of Mr. E. Halley, a member of the Waterford Corporation, he chartered a special plane and took off for his home from the Tramore beach.

Mrs. Moloney was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. Patrick Bowe, of the firm of Bowe Bros. cattle exporters, Waterford, and a grand-daughter of Mr. William Murphy, Butlestown House, Co. Waterford, well-known South of Ireland horse-breeder and exporter. The late Mrs. Moloney was also sister of Mrs. B. Slattery, Otteran Place, Waterford, and of Mrs. Eleanor Power, the Nutshell Business House, Michael Street, Waterford.

VALEDICTORY

COUNCIL'S LAST MEETING

Last Saturday, Limerick County Council held its last meeting before the local elections.

When the ordinary business of the meeting ended, the Chairman wished the members good-bye and good hunting in the next six weeks. "We have had a few stormy scenes now and again in the last five years," he said.

Mr. Lillis said he didn't believe the Club Secretary meant what Mr. Quish thought he did. He proposed that the site be given for £350.

Chairman—We will make it £375. The Council agreed with this figure, and, thanking the Council, Mr. Carroll withdrew.

ESSENTIAL AMENITY

OUT-OFFICES NEEDED

For reasons of economy (writes our Ennis correspondent) the Ennis Urban Council had 96 houses erected at Hermitage without out-offices, but now they are being asked to reconsider their decision. As soon as the houses were occupied, there was an outcry amongst the tenants as to the inconvenience and positive hardship of being without an out-office in which fuel, etc., could be stored. This was recognised and, in a 42 house scheme now in progress, out-offices are being provided. The Consulting Engineer (Mr. P. J. Sheahan) recommends that this amenity be also extended to the 96 houses already occupied at the price quoted by the contractors for the latest scheme, i.e. £10 1s. per house. The cost of the house without out-offices was £1,400 each.

LIMERICK CATTLE MARKET. WEEKLY MARKET, SATURDAY, AUGUST 12th.

Dairy Cows and Heifers—Numerically the entry would be about the same as last week, the quality of both cows and heifers not up to the standard of previous weeks, but for any cow or heifer with promise of milking qualities there were plenty of buyers, the secondary classes again met a quiet trade, a fair clearance was effected. Top price for dairy cows went to Mr. Arthur O'Shea, Newmarket, Co. Cork, at £37 10s., the runner-up being Mr. John Cumneen, Singland Road, Ballysimon, at £36. In-calf and calved cows, best, £35 10s. to £37 10s., seconds, £33 to £35, small, £22 to £27.

Store Cattle—A considerably increased entry and with a much better attendance of buyers than at last market, trade was steady with a considerable portion of the entry freely changing hands under the hammer, reserves in several instances being exceeded. Some forward lots of two and a half year old heifers and bullocks met a particularly good trade, most of this description changing hands, the turnover and clearance being the heaviest for some weeks. Two and two and a half year old bullocks and heifers, £32 to £33 10s.; seconds, £27 10s. to £30; small, £24 to £26 10s. One and a half year old bullocks and heifers, best, £23 10s. to £26; seconds, £21 15s. to £22 10s. Yearlings, best, £20 to £22 5s.; seconds, £18 5s. to £19 10s.; small, £15 to £17 5s.—Louis de Courcy, Auctioneer.
