AND KNIGHTS OF MALTA

Mr. G. B. Dillon has written the following letter, in inst., to Mr. Tadgh O'Rourke, Officer in Charge of the Ambulance Units of the County of Malta:—
I have been approached by a number of prominent citizens who have urged me to Croagh Patrick and who made special mention of the splendid services rendered to the Reek by the members of the Ambulance Units. The work done by these excellent units is worthy of recognition. I am inspired by a spirit of self-sacrifice and displayed courage and duty in keeping with the traditions of this illustrious Order of Christian chivalry. As a member of Limerick I heartily congratulate our members.
Yours sincerely,
G. B. DILLON, Mayor.

The journey was delayed because a detour had to be made owing to obstacles on the roadway resulting from the storm. Tea was partaken of at Gort and lunch at Claremorris. The pilgrims were rather late on arriving at Knock but fortunately there was no rain. An unusual event to mark the homeward journey was the acting of the Good Samaritan towards a man who had been knocked down by a passing vehicle, and for whom the services of a priest and removal to hospital were secured.

LINK WITH CROOM

A correspondent in England writes: Patrick McNamara, son of the late Captain P. McNamara, Streatham Hill, S.W., has gone to Hong Kong as a sub-accountant in the Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China. He travelled by air on Friday, September 15. Patrick is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Lyons, Richmond, Surrey. Mr. Lyons is a native of Croom. The late Captain McNamara served in the first world war and his son as captain in the second world war.

SUDDEN DEATH OF FARMER

The news of the sudden death of Mr. Edmond Boyce, of Derraulin, came as a shock to the people of Ballyagran and district with whom he was very popular (writes our Ballyagran correspondent). His funeral to Castletown, McNery Cemetery was very large and representative. Rev. Fr. McNamara, P.P.; Rev. Fr. Boyce, P.P.; Rev. Fr. Brassil, P.P.; Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Connolly, C.C., officiated at the graveside.
