RAINSTORMS

o an estimate given to farmers of Wiltshire, over £1,000,000 in crop n of the corn was k into the ground.

Ald. D. Bourke, T.D. (F.F.)
then proposed Mr. Bradshaw.
"He is," he said, "the son of an honest father, the late Jim Bradshaw, who was a member of this Council forty years ago. He was known, and deserved to be known, as "honest Jim Bradshaw," whose life was devoted to his country. And his son is like father, a staunch Irishman who was a member of Fianna Eireann in the Black and Tan days. He risked his life for Ireland's freedom."

Ald. Bourke was seconded in Irish by Mr. Frank Glasgow (F.F.)

The Mayor called for a vote, which resulted—For, Ald. Russell; Ald. Russell, Ald. Reidy, T.D.; Ald.
Carew (F.G.), and Messrs. Connery (Ind.), Coughlan (C na P.), O'Sullivan (Ind.), Walsh (F.G.) and Keyes (Lab.)—8. For Mr. Bradshaw—Ald. Bourke, T.D. (F.F.), the Mayor, Messrs. Bradshaw (F.F.), Cunneen (F.F.), Finnian (F.F.), Glasgow (F.F.), O'Connell (F.F.) and O'Malley (F.F.)—8.

DRAWN FROM A HAT.

That left a tie which the Legal Adviser (Mr. J. J. Dundon) said should be decided by lot.

Mr. Bradshaw—I propose that the job be given to the senior Alderman for the ensuing nine months.

There was tremendous applause from all sides of the house at this suggestion, but Mr. Dundon said it couldn't be entertained.

Both candidates then agreed to have their names drawn from a hat. It was also decided that the senior Alderman should make the draw.

There was silence as Ald. Bourke made the draw, and when the outgoing Mayor announced that Mr.

FATAL COLLAPSE IN CITY CIRCUIT-COURT TO-MORROW

An old-age pensioner, Joseph Keane, a native of Ennis, collapsed in William Street, Limerick, this morning at 10.30. He was rushed by the Fire Brigade ambulance to Barrington's Hospital, where he was found to be dead. An inquest is unlikely, as death was from natural causes.

FINED £5,000

A 37 years old resident of Paris, Guillaume Schenker, was fined £5,000, at Folkestone, England, for the attempted evasion of customs duty on 5,472 watches, valued at £190,000.

member of the Council. But, he had a duty to do—and the Mayor was well aware, despite family connections, that he had to put that duty to his party first. There was no animosity on any side, and he knew that the Mayor fully understood the position. He would have his support anytime he asked him.

Ald. Carew said he had a very good knowledge of the new Mayor and from the services he had given in many directions in the city Councillor Bradshaw was really entitled to the office which he now held. He would like to say that anything the new Mayor would require while in office he would give it to him with the fullest cooperation.

Councillor Walsh also congratulated the new Mayor and said he knew his sterling work as a social worker in Limerick.

WILL TRY TO KEEP POLITICS OUT.

Returning thanks to the members of the Council, the Mayor said:—
"I thank you for the nice things you have said and I sincerely believe them and I will look to you for co-operation. From now on, as far as possible, we will try to keep politics out of our Council." (Hear, hear).

in accordance with custom, the remaining business on the agenda was adjourned, on the proposition of Ald. Reidy, seconded by Councillor O'Malley.

Later all the members present accepted the Mayor's invitation to join him in celebration at Cruise's Hotel.

A Guard of Honour of Old I.R.A. members escorted the new Mayor to Cruise's Hotel.

The Michaelmas sittings of the Limerick Circuit Court opens before Judge Barra O Briain in the County Courthouse to-morrow. There is only one criminal case for the city to be dealt with. In the case of the county the Judge will be presented with a pair of white gloves because of the absence of indictable crime from there.

The list of civil business to be dealt with during the present session is heavy.
