PITEOUS APPEAL

FOR STARVING CHILDREN

In a letter to the Editor, Father Peter Tonello, St. John Bosco Shrine, Catholic Mission, Cherrapunjee, Assam, India, makes a piteous appeal for help for the starving children and others under the care of his mission.

"The violent earthquake which happened here on the 15th of August," he says, "will add more hardships to us. In North Assam 10,000 remain homeless. What a pity for these people also. Thank God, no life has been lost here. I am confident your readers will not refuse help in my urgent need to feed my hungry ones. Delay in getting help will bring us hardship and hunger. Poverty is coming to its climax. With worried heart I beg your readers to please avert my present grief by helping to provide bowls of rice for the starving children."

In a postscript, Father Tonello says: "If donations are not sent direct to me, please send through any Bank of Eire."
