AN APPRECIATION

LATE J. MCCARTHY, N.T.

(BY C. J. R.)

A few weeks ago, James McCarthy, N.T., Cappamore, passed to his eternal reward. Although his death was not unexpected, his neighbours and numerous friends feel immensely the passing of this noble-hearted man. For over forty years he laboured untiringly in the education of the boys of the parish, and those who passed through his hands profited not only by his instruction but also from his wise, kind and fatherly advice; and by the edifying example he set them. Most of his leisure was spent in parish work and in giving a helping hand to anyone who needed his assistance and co-operation in the solving of some domestic problem. The foundation stone of many a successful career was laid by him; and to-day some of his past pupils are prominent in the service of the Church, while others hold big and important positions in the professional and commercial world.

His death is mourned in every home in the parish of Cappamore, and, indeed, far outside its confines. His sterling character, his many fine qualities of head and heart, endeared him to all, and when his life came to an end, after long years of useful endeavour for the public weal, the prayers of the whole community were offered up for the happy repose of his soul.

P.P. BEREAVED

DEATH OF WELL-KNOWN FARMER

The death occurred on Tuesday evening, after a short illness, of Mr. Joseph Fitzgerald, Ballinaha, Pallingarry, Co. Limerick, at an advanced age. The deceased was brother of Rev. Edward Fitzgerald, P.P., Coolcappa. He was an extensive farmer and well-known breeder of the dairy shorthorn type of cattle. He was a successful exhibitor at the Limerick Shows and won many cups and prizes. He was Chairman of the Glenwilliam Cow-Testing Association, in which he took a very deep interest. An upright, honourable man and kind neighbour, his death is very sincerely regretted.

COUNCIL'S SYMPATHY.

On the proposition of Mr. Sean Hartney, Limerick Co. Council, on Wednesday, voted sympathy with the relatives of the late Mr. Joseph Fitzgerald, Kilmacow, especially with his brother, Very Rev. Father Fitzgerald, P.P., Kilcoleman.

His memory will for long remain green in this neighbourhood—and so it should.

I feel sure that when his Book of Life was examined the Recording Angel's verdict was: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

RELIGIOUS LIFE

BALLYLANDERS GIRLS ENTER

Miss Kitty Riordan, third daughter of Mrs. Annie Riordan and the late John Riordan, of Cullane House, Ballylanders, went to New York two years ago and, has joined the Missionary Sisters of St. Columban, 950 Metropolitan Ave., Hyde Park, Boston, Mass. (writes our Ballylanders correspondent). She had been residing with her aunt, Mrs. Valentine Dowling, Forest Hills, Long Island, New York, prior to her entry. Miss Riordan is sister of Sister Camilla, of St. Paul's Convent, Birmingham, and Sister Mary Riordan, Convent of Our Lady of Providence, Alton, Hants, England. Mrs. Riordan paid a visit recently to the Mother House at Cahircion, Ennis, where she met the Mother General of the Order of the Sisters of St. Columban, and the Mother General will very shortly see the new postulant.

Miss Kitty O'Dwyer, of Ballintubber, Ballylanders, has entered the Convent of the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word at the Mother House, Carrigorn, Newmarket-on-Fergus, Co. Clare, and will with six other Irish Postulants sail in the "Brittanic" from Cobh to Houston, Texas. Sister Mary Concepta will be in charge of the postulants and they will be welcomed when they arrive at Houston, by Sister Mary Vera Crawford, of Ballylanders. Sister Mary Concepta is delighted with her new charges and all are eagerly looking forward to their new home in far away Texas.

The many relatives and friends of the two postulants wish them every happiness and success in the religious life.
