Margaret Ryan, defendant's mother, said the two brothers lived with her. The socks (produced) were worn by both of the brothers. They were soiled when she last saw them, but she couldn't say whether they had clay on them as they now had.

Cross-examined, witness said the defendant came home at about 11 o'clock on the night of the housebreakings. As far as she knew he hadn't gone out after that.

DIRECTION ASKED FOR

Mr. Gaffney asked for a direction on the ground that there wasn't evidence to connect the defendant with the crimes.

The Justice agreed, saying that where proofs failed was in the future to identify the person walking around in stocking feet that night. Accordingly he discharged the accused.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY MACNEICE

The death of Mrs. Mary MacNeice, wife of Mr. J. S. MacNeice, City Coroner, which took place at her residence, Hawthorne Villas, O'Connell Avenue, Limerick, on Monday, after a long illness, is deeply regretted.

The late Mrs. MacNeice, a lady of many estimable parts, was held in high regard and esteem by a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances. Deeply religious and charitable, she never refused a helping hand to any deserving cause and her death has removed a figure associated with a generation that is all too quickly passing away.
