MALICIOUS DAMAGE CHARGES

Two young Limerick men, at home on leave from England, Ml.
O'Halloran, 36 St. Ita Street, and Clement Walsh, 18 Columcille St., Island Field, were remanded on bail for a week from to-day's sitting of the Limerick District Court on charges of disorderly conduct and malicious damage to a wireless set, the property of James Quinlan, Ellen Street.

Guards O'Grady and McLoughlen, who arrested the defendants in Patrick Street last night said they had other charges against the defendants and, accordingly, wanted the remands.

DIED IN CALIFORNIA

The death occurred recently, at Oakland, California, of Mr. John sonality was loved and respected by all. Requiem High Mass was celebrated at St. Lawrence O'Toole's Church and numerous exiles and relatives attended at the interment, which took place at the Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Mr. Dalton was brother of Mr. Michael Dalton, Carrickerry; Mr. Wm. Dalton, do.; Mrs. Ml. Stack, do.; Mrs. Ed. Barrett, Ballyine, Newcastle West; the late Mrs. Ml. Culhane, Bishop St., Newcastle West; Sister M. Benig-nus, of Holy Names, Central regular cinema-goers will welcome."

—Tom Sheehy in "Irish Catholic."

"Over-statement would not have surprised me, emotionalism would have left me unmoved, platitudes, pious or profane, would have been received with folded arms . . . . but there was none of these things.
Instead . . . . I followed a plain unvarnished tale, told with all the subtlety of cinema, never swerving from fact and overwhelming in actuality."—"Tatler" in "Irish Independent."

This is one film you should not miss seeing.
