DEATH OF MR. A. C. FOGERTY

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Arthur Cecil Fogerty, District Supervisor, E.S.B., which took place on 21st inst. at his residence, "Avalon," Castletroy.

The late Mr. Fogerty, who had been in failing health for some time past, was fifth son of the late Robert Fogerty, proprietor of the old Theatre Royal. The deceased was, in fact, the last member of his family to be manager of the theatre before it passed to other hands. Some 40 years ago he was a keen oarsman and rowed for Limerick Boat Club. He was also a noted rugby player. A very popular gentleman, his death is deeply regretted and sincere sympathy is extended to his widow, son and daughter and other relatives in their bereavement.

The interment took place to-day in St. Mary's Cathedral.

PREMISES EXTENDED

Mr. Fred O'Brien, general draper, Roche's Street, Limerick, has, as will be seen from an advertisement in this issue, extended his premises. Mr. O'Brien, a progressive business man, is to be congratulated on his enterprise.

LIMERICK MAN'S BRAVERY

Awards just made by Comhairle na Mire Gaile include a certificate to Mr. Augustine Hanley, Island Road, Limerick, for the rescue of a youth from drowning in the River Shannon at Athlunkard on 30th of July last.

The Limerick Chamber of Commerce, it is understood, have made official representations to the Garda authorities and Corporation urging that facilities be given to the promoters of the International Grand Prix Round-the-Houses Cycle Race, which is proposed to be held in Limerick next Whit. Both authorities are requested to help in overcoming any difficulties that may hinder the holding of the race.

AMERICAN DAY AT SHANNON

Yesterday the transit restaurant at Shannon Airport was suitably decorated for Thanksgiving Day, the day on which Americans all over the world celebrate the gathering of the first harvest by the Pilgrim Fathers. The U.S. flag was much in evidence, and dinner, which included the traditional roast turkey and cranberry sauce, was served to passengers and crews by candlelight.

LATE MR. P. V. TWOMEY

Requiem Masses for the repose of the soul of the late Mr. P. V. Twomey will be celebrated at 10 a.m. on Monday next, 27th inst., in St. Joseph's Church, and at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, 28th inst., in St. Mary's Church.

The Chairman and members of the Vocational Education Committee, the staff, and students will attend the Masses.

ARREST OF CISTERCIAN

would like to pay a tribute to the enthusiastic support given to the class. Mr. O'Donnell Limerick would like to promote Social and Science classes on the standard as set by the class now completed the course.

Continuing, Dr. O'Riordan said: "This new movement in education has been expected publicity. Indeed, has justification in this ceremony, unique in its history. College, Cork, has accepted its responsibilities and has its educational activities in the countryside. We have as our primary duty of doctors, engineers etc. But we, with advantages and privileges also obligations to others such as urban workers, who, under our system, have such responsibility.

"Since 1915 we have had tentative efforts at extension. This course occasional lectures, and tried a short tutorial method was to have a course of study for two was also vital for such that we establish in the Chair of Sociology, for is absolutely essential for workers in social against current ideology also important that taught should be very the actual lives and the workers. According turned for help to the and teachers of Vocational, without whose this new step would be possible.

HOW IT BECAME

"Four years ago we appeal to the workers put to them a very quest. We asked for workers who would seven hours of lecture private study, per week, earning their living. We did not know we would succeed but the beyond all our expectations.

"We now have 300 such urban workers and families.
