LATE NEWS

THE ATOM BOMB

QUESTION OF ITS USE IN KOREA

It was stated at General MacArthur's headquarters in Tokyo to-day that the predicament of the American 8th Army in Korea was not such as to warrant the use of the atomic bomb.

Fierce fighting along the entire front was in progress throughout the day. Two British Brigades took the brunt of the Chinese Communist assault, while other forces fell back 20 miles to a new defence line. Chinese troops continue to cross the Chongchen River in force.

The Americans strafed the Chinese from the air with the object of easing the position of the 8th Army.

FUND TO BE OPENED

THE TANNERY WORKERS

The Mayor (Mr. K. Bradshaw) presided at a meeting in the Town Hall this evening, called for the purpose of starting a fund for the Tannery workers rendered idle by the disastrous fire of Wednesday night.

It was decided to set up a working committee and to open a fund. A statement will be issued in due course.

SHANNON AIRPORT GOLF DANCE

An exhibition of modern ballroom dancing by the Irish champion, Mr. G. Begley, and partner, and a raffle for a valuable pedigree golden cocker pup are just two of the features which will highlight the first annual dance of the Shannon Airport Golfing Society at the new Hall, Ennis, on Wednesday next. Mr. Begley is Irish professional tango champion, Eire professional ballroom champion, Irish professional trophy champion, and Eire open ballroom champion.

Shannon Airport Golfing Society includes amongst its members ex-
