NO RACING

Following an inspection of the Lingfield racecourse this morning, the Stewards decided that racing would be impossible because of overnight frost. Racing may be possible to-morrow, however. If so to-day's card will be run off and to-morrow's abandoned.

DEATH.

DALY—December 15, 1950, at the City Home and Hospital, Mrs. Christina Daly (late of 41, Athlunkard Street, and recently of 3, Hassett's Villas, Old Thomondgate); deeply regretted by her son, daughters and grandchildren. Funeral arrangements later.

DEATH OF MISS MULHOLLAND

Deep and widespread regret has been caused by the death of Miss Mary Josephine Mulholland, who passed away at her residence, Courtbrack, S.C.R., Limerick, on Monday last. Member of a highly respected family, the deceased was a lady of much refinement and culture and the possessor of many fine qualities. She was held in the highest regard by all who knew her and the deepest sympathy, in which we fully join, is extended to the bereaved relatives and friends. The remains were removed to St. Michael's Church on Tuesday evening, and after Requiem High Mass next morning the funeral took place to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. On both occasions the attendances of mourners and the general public were large and representative.
