Life-Long Gael And Nationalist

DEATH OF MR. JOHN MULCAHY

We regret to announce the death of Mr. John Mulcahy, Garda Headquarters, Dublin, who passed away with tragic suddenness and in the prime of manhood on Tuesday evening of last week. Deceased, who was aged about 46 years, was son of the late Mr. Timothy Mulcahy and the late Mrs. Margaret Mulcahy, Connolly Terrace, Newcastle West, and nephew of Mr. Dan Mulcahy, London, and Sister Marguerite, London. He was brother of Mr. Dan Mulcahy, journalist, Newcastle West; of Messrs. Jim, Bob and Tim Mulcahy, Chicago; Mr. Peg Stapleton and the Misses Chris, Louise and Esie Mulcahy, Chicago. Member of a well-known and esteemed West Limerick family, the late Mr. Mulcahy was a life-long Gael and Nationalist. Before joining the Garda Force about 26 years ago, he was attached to the commercial staff of the former Newcastle West "Weekly Observer" and was an officer of the local Fianna Eireann Company, as well as a leading member of the Newcastle West Hurling and Football teams. He was also associated for a number of years with the publication of the "Garda Review." Sincere sympathy will be tendered to the bereaved brothers and sisters at home and in Chicago on the loss of a loving and devoted brother.

Poignant scenes were witnessed at the removal of the remains from the Richmond Hospital, Dublin, on Wednesday evening. The coffin, draped in the Tricolour, was escorted from the hospital to the outskirts of the city by the Garda Band and a bodyguard of Metropolitan Garda and comrades of the deceased, and on parting the Dead March was played as a final tribute to the deceased. On arrival at Newcastle West the cortège was again received by a Garda guard of honour under Supt. M. McKenna and Sergt. J. Daly.

There was a very large and representative attendance at the funeral, which took place from Newcastle West Church to Grange Cemetery on Thursday. All sections of the community were represented, and once again members of Force from the town and surrounding stations joined in a last moving tribute to the deceased.

The officiating clergy were: Right Rev. Monsignor Hannan, P.P., V.G., Newcastle West; Rev. D. Costelloe, C.C., do.; Rev. M. Kelly, C.C., do.; Rev. D. McCarthy, C.C., Knockaderry.
