

HOLIDAY RACING

Happy River Should Win At Limerick

(FROM OUR RACING CORRESPONDENT)

DAT HOGAN'S charge, Happy River, which has two engagements in the first stage of the Limerick Christmas two-day meeting, is given nap vote in his selected engagement.

If sent for the feature event on Tuesday, the Dunraven Cup Handicap Steeplechase, his task would be really stiff, as he will have such as Mr. Dibs, Footit, Point of Law and Copper Twist to beat. However, he has class on his side, and is an established weight carrier over this distance. Only in his absence would I choose Copper Twist, which has run well on many occasions and is generously handicapped here.

Perhaps Happy River may be reserved for the St. Stephen's Day Chase, in which event his most dangerous rival might be Result.

The consistent Loughgur Lassie has plenty of weight in the Holiday Handicap Hurdle over two miles, in which Rose's Line, Nutty Solera and Little Boy Blue must be beaten. Nutty Solera will be a danger, but Loughgur Lassie is confidently selected.

Johnny M., on the strength of a good second to Dashing Lady at Thurles, looks a safe bet in the Greenpark Maiden Hurdle, and unlucky Moneenroe's turn may come in the Mungret Novice 'Chase, in which Dashing Lady is the chief danger.

Here are my selections and the declared runners:—

IN MEMORIAM.

ALLEN (Thirteenth Anniversary)—In sad and loving memory of Mr. John Allen, late of "Liscannor House," Corbally, Limerick, who died December 21, 1937. On his soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered.—Sadly remembered by his wife and sons.

BARRY (Twenty-first Anniversary)—Cherished memories of John (Jack) Barry, who was killed at Knocklong Station on Christmas Day, 1929. On his soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Our Lady of the Assumption, pray for him. St. Francis, intercede for him. R.I.P. Masses offered at Rochestown Monastery.

We miss his smile, his cheery way,
 We miss the things he used to say,
 But when the past we oft recall,
 'Tis then we miss him most of all.
 May God's heavenly light shine on you, Jack.
 In a greater world above,
 Some day, some time, I hope to meet
 The face that I still love.

—Inserted by his fond sister, Brigid, and family.

BEDFORD (Fifth Anniversary)—Treasured memories of our dear Philomena (Phyllis), late of 1, Emily Place, Mary Street, who died on Christmas Day, 1945. R.I.P. Mass offered.

No card, no kiss, no Christmas wish,
 For the one we loved and sadly miss,
 But Christmas time is hardest, it nearly breaks our hearts.
 Just to-day we are thinking of you,
 Phyllis.

But that is nothing new,
 We thought about you yesterday,
 And the day before that, too,
 We'll think of you to-morrow,
 And each day all through the year.

We'll think of you forever,
 For to us you were so dear.
 —Never forgotten by your fond mother, sisters and brother.

BUCKLEY (Sixth Anniversary)—In loving memory of my dear mother, Annie Buckley, who died December 22, 1944, late of 19 Talbot Ave., Prospect, Limerick.

The voice is now silent, the heart is now cold,
 The smile and the welcome that met
 us of old,
 We miss her and mourn her in sorrow unseem,
 And dwell on the memory of days that have been.

—Inserted by her loving son, Joe, and daughter-in-law, Breda.
