Obituary

MRS. MARGARET CLANCY, GRANGE

It is with the very deepest regret we announce the death of Mrs. Mgt. Clancy, Grange (R.I.P.), who died at her home on December 12th.

Deceased was the widow of the late John Clancy, who was well known in every Irish-Ireland movement. She was highly popular in her native Grange and the large crowd which attended the removal of her remains to Grange Church on December 13th, and again at her interment in the adjoining cemetery on the following day, gave evidence of this popularity.

The chief mourners were—Mrs. Hayes (daughter), Patrick, Tony and George (sons); Mrs. Tony Clancy and Mrs. George Clancy (daughters-in-law), and Mr. L. Hayes (son-in-law); Mrs. English, Breda Bulfin (nieces); Thomas Bulfin (brother-in-law), N. Clancy, J. Clancy, T. Bulfin, G. Bulfin, P. Bulfin, J. Bulfin (nephews); Patrick, Margaret, Mary, Kitty O'Connell, C. Hayes, N. Hayes (cousins).

The following sent Mass cards:—Paddie and Angela; Tony and Breda; George and Mary; May and Liam; Raleigh family, Grange; McInerney family, Grange; McInerney family, 12 Wickham St; Mrs. English; Bulfin family; Moloney family, Grange; Liston family, Limerick; Peggie and Dan Keehan; Mrs. S. Ryan and family, Rockstown; James and Babs. Egan; Jack O'Leary, Dublin; Mrs. McNulty, Limerick.

Juniors.

Young Munster and Old Crescent have had quite a good season so far and have come through the Transfield Cup with full points in their four matches played. The final on Sunday week should prove one of the outstanding New Year attractions.

Schools.

The big surprise in school circles was the defeat of Crescent College in the Bowen Shield by Glenstal, and incidentally this was the game that put full stop to Crescent's hope of regaining the Shield.

Our inter-pro. team showed up very poorly against Leinster, who had a convincing win. Though our seniors in the like class defeated Connacht, they were narrowly beaten by both Leinster and Ulster, and shared the bottom of the table with Leinster and Connacht.

"Let's face it," I said, "the cleaners aren't all the same. And since I've found how much time Vim saves I gladly admit it. It's so much smoother too! Yes, Vim's brightened my outlook and right—I'm insisting on it now!"
