MARTIAL LAW.

Surrender of Uniforms. The following notice, dated C.R. 6th Division, Cork, December 22nd, has been sent us for publication. Under proclamation of Martial Law all persons, with the exception of those now serving with the Forces of the Crown, who have uniform of the Forces of the Crown, or any part of same, in their possession, must surrender it to the nearest Military Authority.

GASTRIC ULCERS AND WEAK NERVES.

In Bed Months at a Time. Cured by Dr. Cassell's Tablets. Mrs. White, 49, Rednor Road East, South Bank, S.O., Yorks, says:—I am sure Dr. Cassell's Tablets saved my life. My illness came on about nine years ago when I was about 40. I had a very severe attack of indigestion, which latter brought on gastric ulcers. I was in bed for months at a time, in great pain and very nervous.

THE PRICE OF COAL.

A few days ago it was reported (says a contemporary) that certain Derbyshire mines were finding it difficult to dispose of their whole coal output. Now the Secretary for Mines announces that owing to the falling industrial demand, foreign bunkering is to be permitted in the Humber and the Mersey.

AUSTRIAN BANK NOTES ON BEER BOTTLES.

Bank notes are sometimes put to strange uses in these days of depreciated currencies. A Swiss correspondent states that a brewery at Zurich has had the idea of using Austrian one-crown notes as labels for beer bottles.

MAGISTRATE FIRED AT IN NORTH TIPPERARY.

While going from Moneygall to his home in Bally Hill, Cloughfadra, on Thursday night, Magistrate Henry J. O'Connell was fired at, according to the latest information, several times. The shot was fired from a narrow part of the road and it is said that the magistrate was discharged at the time.

CAHERGULLAGH TRAGEDY.

Funeral of Constable Hogan. The funeral of Constable Hogan, of Cahergullagh, who was fatally wounded in the affray at Cahergullagh were brought to Kilmallock and placed in a train for removal to London. At the station passengers and others were requested to remove their hats by police. Hogan was aged 30, and a member of the force in Bross.

TIPPERARY MAN SHOT.

A Tipperary message states that William Slattery, 124, Lisboheen, Ennis, was brought in a police car to Tipperary on Thursday in a dying condition. He was shot by a military man. He expired shortly after his arrival. It is said that the man who shot him was a member of the force in Bross.

EMBARGO ON CANADIAN CATTLE.

Withdrawal Refused. The Government's reply to appeals from various English and Canadian interests for the withdrawal of the embargo on the import of Canadian cattle is a refusal to withdraw the embargo. The Association of British Chambers of Commerce, on December 24th, submitted a resolution to the Ministry of Agriculture (England) urging that the embargo on Canadian cattle should be withdrawn so as to afford means of obtaining the cattle and other products of the country in connection with the manufacture of mutton, and also in order to increase the supply of beef and mutton.

BRONCHIAL COUGHS AND HOARSENESSES.

Veno's Lightning Cough Cure. Bronchial Coughs are soon cured by Veno's Lightning Cough Cure. This great dose gives relief in ordinary cases, and even severe coughs of long standing are soon cured by this most popular of cough remedies. For hoarseness and loss of voice Veno's is unmatched. Its soothing effect on the lining of the throat and larynx soon allays irritation, and restores clearness and resonance to the voice.

IRISH TRADE WITH AMERICA.

Intimation has been received in Dublin of an important expansion of the direct shipping between New York and Ireland promoted by the Moore-McCormick Co. in conjunction with the Irish Industrial Development Association. Hitherto the vessels served three Irish ports—Dublin, Cork, and Belfast. It has now been arranged to include Limerick and Derry in the ports of call at the beginning of the new year.

SIR HAMAR GREENWOOD AND HOME RULE ACT.

Sir Hamar Greenwood, in an interview, expressed the opinion that the future historian would see in the present measure of self-government the beginning of the end of the Irish question.
