THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE

Established 1768. Tuesday, February 1, 1921. Agricultural Topics.

AGRICULTURAL TOPICS

There are many features of interest to the farming community, and to city people as well, in the monthly statistical statement which for some time past has been issued by the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland. Directly or indirectly there is no one amongst us who has not a real concern in the chief of our staple industries, and who does not desire to see it thrive and prosper.

FATHER DOMINIC SENTENCED

Sentence has been pronounced in the case of Rev Father Dominic, O.F.C., who had been charged with the murder of a woman in the city of Limerick. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment.

THE ATHLETIC

At the Athenaeum Fintona last night the "Band of Bravery" a still production, was shown to large audiences, and was from every point of view a remarkably realistic and interesting film. It contains a story of considerable interest, and held attention throughout. It was sponsored by "Vanishing Trails," a delightful serial, which never loses interest or merit in its succeeding phases.

Why we must Sell is your opportunity to Buy.

The announcement that we have leased our main premises to Messrs F W WOOLWORTH & CO. LTD, has created quite a stir in Limerick, and many who have been putting off purchasing Furniture are now availing of our

to secure their wants. Our receipts since the Sale opened have been phenomenal, and if you are wanting anything we sell, now is your time to visit our Showrooms.

Since we commenced selling Furniture in 1830 it has been our policy to mark our goods in plain figures. The original price ticket remains on every article in our Showrooms with the result that you can see for yourself the sweeping reductions we are making.

You can never hope to buy Furniture cheaper than we are selling it now. This is not an ordinary sale. It is a Clearance Sale. That is why we are being overwhelmed with customers—they know the quality of the goods offered, and the low prices asked for them.
