

THE GLENWOOD AMBUSH.

Late D. I. Clarke. PEEPS INTO THE PAST.

Award to Relatives.

When County Court Judge Rodkin, K.C. resumed the business of the Lunatic Quarter Sessions, on Friday morning, he heard the last of the claims for compensation made in connection with the Glenwood Ambush.

Mr. T. Collins, K.C., with Mr. Callinan, B.L. (instructed by Mr. Callinan, Crown Solicitor) appeared for the applicant.

Counsel opened the case at length, dealing principally with the pecuniary assistance rendered by the deceased to his father, mother, and his two unmarried sisters.

His Honor Mr. J. J. O'Connell, after a long and careful consideration of the evidence, awarded to the applicant a sum of £100,000.

FARMING NOTES.

FACTS AND FANCIES. SUNSHINE SHOPPING. The imagery of the East, which we used to hear so much, is now the special attribute of the Japanese advertisement man.

CHARACTER READING. Knows that life wags apart, denote an even disposition. They must not present a ruffled appearance to bow this interpretation.

A BRICK. To refer to someone who has pleased us as a "brick" dates back to very ancient times.

CHINESE MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS. The Chinese have quite a large collection of musical instruments, many more or less of an interesting character.

WHY WE SHAKE HANDS. To shake hands with a person is rightly regarded as a token of amity, but very few know how this custom arose.

COLD RESTORES THE HAIR. He who wishes to renew his falling hair should go to the polar regions.

THE LARGEST SUNDIAL. Among the remarkable antiquities of India is the great sundial at Delhi.

BIG FEES FOR DOCTORS. It is not lawyers only whose professional fees sometimes run into five figures.

COCK-FIGHTS IN ANCIENT ATHENS. In ancient Athens it was customary to have an annual cock-fight in the theatre in commemoration of the defeat of the Persians.

THE KING'S PROCTOR. The King's Proctor is a personality as well as a Department, says the Daily News.

SHELLS USED FOR GLASS. As a substitute for glass, seashells are used in the Philippines.

II. AND II. MAKE IV. You may be very thankful if you have much calculating to do in your day's work that you can do your arithmetic in handy Arabic numerals.

THE POOR MAN'S TREE. At Kaffa, in Abyssinia, is found "the poor man's tree," or "the tree for the hungry."
