IMPORTANT BUSINESS

People are apt to forget that health management is the most important business in which they can be engaged. It requires only a few moments' reflection, however, to realize that, if through neglect or ignorance one's health is injured all one's efficiency and enjoyment of life is impaired. You simply cannot afford to let yourself get run down or to ignore any symptom of impending ill-health. Whenever you have any reason to believe that your stomach is out of order or that you are inclined to be bilious or constipated, you will be wise to take a dose of Beecham's Pills and to continue taking them according to directions until you feel quite all right again.

THE IRISH QUESTION.

There has recently been much speculation in the Press as to whether an Autumn Session of Parliament was likely in view of the possible developments of the Irish Peace movement.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer has, however, cleared the air of any doubt so far as the duration of the present session is concerned.

Lord Birkenhead and the Irish Question. In the Lords last night the Lord Chancellor said that the Government's terms were accepted, and Parliament approved them.

CLOSING OF IRISH CREAMERIES. All Orders Rescinded, Says Mr A Chamberlain. Mr Watson asked the Prime Minister, seeing that a truce is now operating in Ireland, whether he could see his way clear to allow those creameries to re-open.

FUTURE OF THE POLICE FORCES. A meeting of the Representative Body of the Royal Irish Constabulary has been assembled, and is now occupied in discussing the future of the force.

CONCERT AT THE ATHENÆUM. A complimentary concert at the Athenæum last night by Mr Patrick Sheehan, the young Limerick artist, who recently won the Herbert Koonen Scholarship, was a very marked success.

GREAT MUNSTER FAIR. After a lapse of some months, owing to the political situation, the Great Munster Cattle and Sheep Fair will be held to-morrow at the Fair Ground, in a way, it is a revival, and promises to be a large one.

CAHRIGUILLAMORE DANCE AFFAIR. Mr Frank Nolland, Bruff, who was sentenced to five years' penal servitude in connection with the Cahriguillamore dance tragedy last January, has been released from Parkhurst Prison, but he is presently receiving treatment in a curing home in Epsom.

GOOD SECONDARY EDUCATION AT £60 PER ANNUM. The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement appearing in this issue of the Bishop of Exeter's Schools, Waterford, now reorganized on modern lines, and housed in the splendid premises of the Bishop's Palace in that city.

U.S. MAIL LINE. DEAR SIR—Our attention has been called to statements in the Press to the effect that the steamers operated by the U.S. Mail Steamship Co. were seized by the American Shipping Board, and that a competing line was to be given possession of the route.

EXCURSION TO FOYNES. The G.S. & W.R. announces in our advertising columns an excursion to Adare and Foynes on Sunday, the special train leaving Limerick at 4 p.m.

ELECTRIC LIGHTING COMMITTEE. A meeting of the Electric Lighting Committee was held last evening, the Deputy Mayor, Mr Alderman O'Donovan presiding. A letter was read from Mr Frederick O'Flynn, who has been acting as Borough Electric Lighting Engineer for some months in conjunction with Mr J. Grant, assistant engineer, resigning the position on personal reasons.

TRENCH DANGER. Cyclist's Mishap at Nenagh. A young man named O'Brien, when cycling, ran into a trench which had been cut across the road at Ballinacloy, near Nenagh, on Sunday, and received injuries which necessitated his removal to the Limerick Infirmary.

IRISH PEACE MOVE.

Mr De VALERA AND DOWNING STREET. Communication Received. London, Wednesday.

The Central News Political Correspondent writes:—A communication has been received by Downing Street to-day from Mr De Valera. This is the first time that the negotiations have been reported in a confidential way in the same way that the conversations and terms were regarded.

The Press Association Dublin Correspondent telegraphs:—A new peace movement was made known publicly to-day. Mr De Valera, Mr Arthur Griffith, and other Sinn Féin leaders conferred for some hours at the Dublin Mansion House, but it is likely that the deliberations will continue for a day or two before anything is revealed.

DAILY EIREANN. Meeting of Cabinet. Dublin, Wednesday.—It was stated by Mr Desmond Fitzgerald, T.D., this evening, that a meeting of the Cabinet took place at Downing Street on the 27th inst. There was a full session, and President De Valera presided. No report of the proceedings is issued.

AMERICAN WINS MOTOR GRAND PRIX.

The motor-car Grand Prix took place on Sunday, for the first time since 1914, when it was won by the Lyons outfit. The race was held at Autryville (105 1/2 kilometres (about 65 miles) an hour.

The winner was Murphy, on an American Duesenberg car. French cars filled the next two places, and another American was fourth.

The following description is based on messages from Rouen and the Evening Standard. This year's race was run on the Sarthe circuit at Le Mans, a triangular course of 10 miles 7 furlongs having to be covered 30 times, the total distance being 321 miles. For the benefit of the public barriers totalling over 10,000ft were erected on both sides of the road.

With French drivers for the American cars and American drivers for the French cars, the event was regarded in France as of a commercial rather than a sporting nature.

At the same time, the eleventh-hour British entries—namely Mr Lee-Gulpass and Major Begrave, each driving a Talbot—were welcomed for their sportiveness, as they arrived too late for a trial run of the circuit.

The machines were lined to leave the starting point at nine o'clock, but from four this morning crowds began to stream towards the course.

At eight o'clock the stands were packed, and throughout the whole of the afternoon the barriers guarding the route. Areas reserved for garaging motors were packed, motor cars being wheel to wheel over many acres.

Shortly before the start George Carpenter arrived, and was at once the centre of an admiring crowd.

The weather was clear, and a shower which fell was not enough to lay the dust. It was terrificly warm.

POSTAL TELEGRAPHISTS IN THE ARMY. Important Decision. A man of considerable interest to Post Office telegraphists was heard in the King's Bench Division, London, yesterday, when a petition of right was presented by Mr Robert Thomas Sutton, who sought a decision as to whether he was entitled under the terms of his contract to receive full pay, plus his Army pay.

It was contended that telegraphists serving as such with the Forces should receive the same civil pay as those who were serving at home.

The Solicitor-General, for the Crown, submitted that the war increases were temporary war bonuses, and applied only to those living at home, and were not in the nature of wage increases.

Mr Justice Darling gave a decision in favour of the petitioner, holding that the bonus granted because part of the civil pay, and that it was not a war bonus, and should not lose his full rights to civil pay granted to others because he happened to be serving in the Regular Army. Therefore he should be allowed to claim the bonus.

The Solicitor-General asked for a stay of judgment in view of a possible appeal.

Mr Justice Darling—I am sure the longer you consider it the better you will think the judgment. A stay of twenty-one days was granted in view of an appeal.

DEATH SENTENCES. Master of the Rolls and Military Courts. In the Chancery Division, Dublin, on Tuesday, the Master of the Rolls delivered judgment in the case of John Joseph Egan v. General Sir Nevill Mackenzie, Major-General Brickland, Brigadier-General Cameron, and the Attorney-General.

Egan is a motor engineer in the employment of the Royal Ordnance Corps, and was sentenced to death by a military court assembled at Limerick, on the charge of being in possession of ammunition.

The Master of the Rolls held that Egan could, and should, have been tried by a court-martial under the provisions of the Restoration of Order in Ireland Act, and that a writ of habeas corpus must be issued on the ground that the Act had limited the powers of the military authority in the present state of war in Ireland.

He made the writ returnable for next Friday, and addressed Mr Lynch, K.C., who, with Mr Keane, K.C., and Mr Costello (instructed by Mr John B. Lynch), appeared for Mr Egan, and was sentenced to death when the prisoner was brought up under the writ counsel would move for his discharge.

A similar decision was given in the case of Mr Patrick Higgins, one of the Clonmull prisoners, who was tried by a military court in Cork and sentenced to death.
