

WOODFORD'S CORN. WOODFORD'S DUBLIN. WOODFORD'S BROWN LABEL.

WOODFORD'S CORN. WOODFORD'S DUBLIN. WOODFORD'S BROWN LABEL.

Woodford, Bourne & Co. LIMERICK LTD.

The Limerick Chronicle.

ESTABLISHED 1766. 155th YEAR OF PUBLICATION.

VOL 154. No 26,299 TUESDAY AUGUST 9 1921

TWO PENCE

GOOD TEA AND GOOD SUGAR AT REVISED PRICES ORDER TEA BY POST 2s 6d 2s 8d, 3s, 3s 6d, 4s.

Woodford, Bourne & Co LIMERICK LTD.

CUNARD LINE SAILINGS FROM QUEENSTOWN TO UNITED STATES & CANADA

Table with columns for destination, ship name, departure date, and arrival date. Includes destinations like Liverpool, Queenstown, London, and New York.

For Rates of Passage and further particulars apply Cunard Lines, Liverpool: 51, Bishopsgate Street, London, E.C. 2; 29-31, Cooks' Street, London S.W. 1; 1 Milway Road, Plymouth; Maritime Chambers, Southampton; James Little & Co., Ltd., 1 Albert Square, Belfast; or to Local Agents.

Notice of Poor Rates Having Been Made. COUNTY OF LIMERICK. NOTICE is hereby given that Poor Rates have been duly made on the Property...

Table of Poor Rates for various parishes in Limerick, including Croom, Rathkeale, Glan, and Tipperary. Columns include parish name, amount levied, and amount paid.

Table listing various charges and rates, including Criminal Injuries, Public Health, and other municipal charges.

Deals, Floorings, Sheetings, Cement, Slates Clay Goods.

Every building requisite from Foundation to Roof. SOLE AGENTS FOR BEAVER BOARD.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES. SPAIGHT'S, LTD, IMPORTERS, LIMERICK.

J. P. EVANS & CO. Engineers and General Merchants, LIMERICK.

WE SHALL APPRECIATE ENQUIRIES FOR THE FOLLOWING: Separator Duplicate Parts, Bolts, Belts, Ropes, Lubricating Oils, Up-to-Date Dairy Machinery...

REPAIRS OF ALL KINDS CARRIED OUT IN OUR WORKS BY A HIGHLY-SKILLED STAFF OF MECHANICS TO GAS, OIL, AND STEAM ENGINES, REFRIGERATORS...

1921--TENNIS SEASON--1921.

Mulligan Bros & Todd Have just received a Consignment of Slazengers' Famous Tennis Rackets, Presses, Balls, Gut Reviver, Waterproof Covers and Bags, LADIES' AND GENTS' TENNIS SHOES.

WM. R. GLEESON FOR SECOND HAND AND NEW FURNITURE 52 Thomas Street.

WINE. CLARET: "Vin Ordinaire" 2/- large, 1/- small. BURGUNDY: 3/- " 1/8. SHERRY: "Vino de Porto" 4/- "Oloroso" 5/-.

ZONOPHONE advertisement with illustration of a family listening to music. Text: 'Make the fine days more pleasant. No more delightful means of entertainment can be found than a Zonophone Instrument...'.

John MacNamara & Son PAINTERS AND DECORATORS, 58, Catherine Street, Limerick.

PAINTING AND DECORATING JOHN GEARY AND SONS, HOUSE AND CHURCH DECORATORS, 7, THOMAS STREET, LIMERICK.

BEECHAM'S PILLS advertisement with decorative border. Text: 'IMPORTANT BUSINESS People are apt to forget that health management is the most important business in which they can be engaged...'.

LIMERICK CHRONICLE (Established 1766) PUBLISHED TUESDAY, THURSDAY, & SATURDAY Evening

READ BY ALL CLASSES. Extensive Circulation in Town and Country. BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM Telegraphic & General News Service. LATEST SPORTING RESULTS. FULL-LOCAL REPORTS. Price: - - TWOPENCE

Small Advertisements

Small Advertisements, "Wants," etc One Halfpenny per Word, Minimum 1s.6d. Three Insertions, Minimum, 3s.

DEBT COLLECTING AGENCY (Established 1890). BRIGHT SUNNY DAYS are welcome after the severe winter season. DEBTS COLLECTING AGENCY (Established 1890).

UCAL FLY EXTERMINATOR for destroying all kinds of insect pests. TENNIS SHOES, etc., can be made snow white with Snowflake Cream.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS go hand in hand. If you feel "run down," "out of sorts," "want of energy," now is the time to make yourself feel "fit" throughout the trying summer season.

OVER TWENTY TITLES IN STOCK by GARVILLE, the Prince of Storytellers, at GALBRAITH'S Bookshop, 33 Upper O'Connell-street, Limerick.

ADVANCES (Loans) Ltd., 31 EXCHEQUER STREET, DUBLIN. £5 to £5,000 Advanced Privately ON SIMPLE PROMISSORY NOTES.

FAIR HOUSES FOR Printing & Advertising in the City. Messrs G. McKern & Sons, Ltd., O'Connell-street.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS

In consequence of the earlier departure of the evening trains from Limerick, and the curtailing of the boat for posting, it is requested that advertisers who have been found necessary to insert the notices of the Chronicle at an earlier hour than hitherto, should note that the latest hour at which advertisements can be received at this office on any day is 3.30 p.m. For the attention of any notices received after that hour cannot be guaranteed for that evening.

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE
(RE-ESTABLISHED 1766)
TUESDAY, AUGUST 9, 1921

FAMINE-STRICKEN RUSSIA.

It cannot be doubted that just now the eyes of all civilized Nations are turned towards Russia and the desperate plight of a large section of its population. The chaotic conditions so long prevailing in that unhappy country have brought nothing but distress and confusion in their train, dislocated trade and industry, and resulted in personal privation to an acute degree. And now there is a further cause which adds to the miseries of the people, illustrating the old adage that misfortunes never come singly. The prolonged drought has caused the failure of the crops and one can readily conceive what that means in a vast country where agriculture plays a most important part, so much so that previous to the war Russia was one of the greatest grain producing countries on which other Nations largely relied for their supplies. The country has, indeed, seen dark and bitter times these years past, and to-day famine stalks the land. There are cries for urgent help in the form of food and the like, and there can be no doubt, as the "Times" says, "about the duty of humanity to send aid." America has shown a bright example in that respect. It has undertaken to feed one million starving children in Russia, a truly generous and remarkable feat deserving of the highest praise. And it will be recalled that this is not America's first philanthropic effort on behalf of Russia, for Mr Hoover's wonderful relief work which has been carried on since the armistice will for ever earn for him the gratitude of Russians of all parties long after the present generation has passed away. All this is indeed fully attested in a letter which Lord Wearde, Chairman of the Russian "Save the Children Fund," (London), has addressed to the Press. It points out that however important the American relief movement may be, and is so great as the distress in Russia that only a fringe of the affected population can be touched. Every civilized country in the world must, therefore, help. The Fund just referred to has its agent in Moscow, and details are being completed for relief measures on a considerable scale. The entire organization and administration of this relief fund will be under British supervision, and it should be noted that for some time past this Fund has been feeding in large numbers the children of Russian refugees in Constantinople and along the whole country up to Ival. Lord Wearde's appeal for further generous help from the public is certain to meet with a ready and timely response in Great Britain. And need it be said the warm-hearted nature of the Irish people will go out in full sympathy with the helpless sufferers in Russia. The Irish Trades Congress has set a headline for practical action, which we feel assured will have satisfactory and material results in furthering a great cause of charity and humanity. Every Nation will, as said, help, and to that end it is announced that delegations are to be sent to England, France, Spain, the United States, and various other countries to plead the cause of the starving Russians. It is an appeal that on the very grounds of humanity needs no words to commend it, and the instincts of self-preservation render it irresistible.

THE BAKERS' STRIKE.

Some time since the Limerick Board of Guardians gave the city Bakers' Society the use of the ovens in the Union with the object of having bread supplied to the public during the strike for increased wages. The term was limited to a fortnight which expired on Saturday, but on representations made respecting the matter, and correspondence which took place on the subject it has been arranged to let the bakers have the further use of the ovens during the present week. The extension of the term will do no harm as a meeting of master bakers and men's representatives is to be held within the next few days, with the object of settling the settlement of the strike, due to a demand for a substantial increase of wages not being entertained by the employers, or rather the amount asked not having been conceded. An inspector from Dal Eirann was in Limerick recently, and questioned the action of the Guardians in the matter of loaning the ovens, and asking for details. Dal Eirann, it is understood, is to be represented at the meeting, and the whole question will, it is stated, be gone into, for the purpose of having a satisfactory settlement arrived at. The bakers have made a demand, and the master bakers it appears, are willing to grant some of the amount asked by the men. The business of the forthcoming meeting will be to see if a compromise cannot be made on one or the other side, and failing this to have the question left to the decision of an arbitrator.

LAHINCH GOLF CLUB.

August Meeting.

GOLF LINKS HOTEL CUP.

W F Quilman	90	10	80
Col Linnam	92	8	84
M J Bulger	89	6	86
Rev J S Shanahan	93	7	86
J E Tate	95	8	87

COOLBAWN CUP.

J M Leydon	94	16	78
P E Bryant	94	16	79
J S Lathford	92	12	80
Dr Shanahan	92	12	80
J R Neylon	94	14	80
E F MacMahon	98	18	80

BOGEY COMPETITION.

CLASS A.

W F Quilman (9 up)	7	75
W J Murphy (plus 1)	—	—
A K Browning (3)	—	—
P F Shee (5)	—	—

CLASS B.

P E Bryant (13)	—	—
Dr McManus (13)	—	—
J M Leydon (14)	—	—

BOLSHOIC COMPETITION.

D M Downing	71	6	75
P J Killen	91	13	77 1/2
W J Murphy	97	17	75 1/2
Dr Beick	83	5 1/2	77 1/2

DUBLIN HORSE SHOW.

The Horse Show opened to-day at Ballsbridge. There is a great influx of visitors to the metropolis, including very many from across channel. (BY TELEGRAPH.)

The entries are up to the average, and the high quality of horses is well maintained. Hunters are a strong section.

The Horse Show was opened in fine weather but rained off in the afternoon. The attendance was a large one and included many American, Colonial, and Continental visitors.

Missano retained the sire championship which he won last year, Conize being again second.

IRISH CHIEF SECRETARY'S FUTURE.

There is a good deal of speculation in political circles as to the future of the Chief Secretary for Ireland, writes "The Sunday Post" correspondent. According to present intention, the office is not to be abolished until the provisions of the Government of Ireland Act come into full operation. It is, of course, likely that the present state will never be completely put to rest, and that the result of the peace negotiations will be to place an entirely new Bill on the Statute Book. In the event of the office of Chief Secretary disappearing, it is regarded as probable that Sir Hamar Greenwood will be invited to fill another post in the Cabinet; the well-informed politicians yesterday predicted that he is destined to succeed Mr Shortt at the Home Office. Mr Shortt will, it is anticipated, receive a High Court Judgeship in the meantime.

ATTACK ON PRISON VAN.

Thirteen Men Charged.

Edinburgh, Monday.—In Edinburgh High Court to-day, thirteen men came up for trial on a charge of conspiracy and murder. The prosecution formed the sequel to an attack on a prison van in Glasgow last day, when an attempt was made to release a prisoner, a police inspector being fatally shot and a detective wounded. A special defence was set up on behalf of the accused. The trial is expected to last a fortnight.

IRISH REPRESENTATIVES.

Foreign Recognition Question.

In the House of Commons yesterday, Mr Chamberlain, answering Colonel Newman, said that he was in favor of the Government not granting recognition to any Irish representatives. As to the question whether any form of Government in the South of Ireland, with the right to separate diplomatic or consular representation would not be conceded, he would ask the hon member to await the statement the Prime Minister hopes to make before the house rises.

Colonel Newman—Will the right hon gentleman have the answer sent to our representative in the Argentine?

Mr Chamberlain—I see no necessity for it.

TRANSPORTING ARMS.

Edinburgh, Monday.—In the Edinburgh High Court to-day, Sean O'Doherty and James Nimmo, two young Irishmen, were sentenced to three years' penal servitude on pleading guilty to charges of carrying and attempting to transport arms from Dundee to Glasgow last April. James Davany, who pleaded guilty only to having had arms under his control, was sentenced to 18 months' imprisonment. He explained he had merely helped to get the stuff to the station.

Lena McDonnell, who pleaded not guilty, was discharged. On leaving the dock she kissed one of the prisoners before descending through the trap-door to the cells beneath. O'Doherty was used, "God Save Ireland."

LORD BEATTY'S AMERICAN TRIP.

Lord Beatty has provisionally accepted an invitation of the American Legion to attend the National Convention in Kansas City at the end of October. It is probable that Lord Haig may also be present. Lord Beatty, however, has made his acceptance conditional on public duties not demanding his attention. The American Legion is an non-political organization of ex-servicemen something on the lines of the British Legion.

SUDDEN DEATH OF AN M.P.

In the House of Commons.

Mr Thomas Wintringham, M.P. for Louth (Lincolnshire), died suddenly in the Reading Room of the House of Commons late evening. He was sitting reading a paper, when he suddenly gave two or three gasps, and expired in his chair.

Mr Wintringham's health had given occasion for anxiety. He was born at Grimby in 1807. He was returned as a Liberal member for the Louth division in June, 1920, on the death of Mr. Brackenbury, when he defeated the Coalition Unionist candidate by 2,505 votes.

Mr Chamberlain moved the adjournment of the House as a tribute of respect, and this was agreed to.

MILITARY ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS.

The following are among the successful candidates at the examination in June for admission to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst:—J B O'Hanrahan, R E Heaney, G. H. J. Mansell, F. A. K. R. D. M. O'Connell, J. P. Swan, F. A. H. Magee, F. G. F. Esan, K. W. Goodbody, H. G. Grant, J. J. St. J. C. Roole, E. Croghan, B. Casey, H. Quinn. The following were successful at the examination for cadetship at the R.M.A. Cadet College:—F. V. Beamish, J. H. Hutcheon.

IRISH PEACE MOVE.

DECISION TO RELEASE DAIL MEMBERS.

Mr J J McKeon Excepted but Released yesterday.

Dublin, Tuesday evening issued the following announcement:—"In keeping with the public undertaking given by the Prime Minister that his Majesty's Government would facilitate in every practicable way the steps now being taken to promote peace in Ireland, it has been decided to release forthwith, and without conditions, all members of Dal Eirann who are at present interned, or who are undergoing sentences of penal servitude or imprisonment, to enable them to attend the meeting of Dal Eirann which has been summoned for August 10."

"His Majesty's Government has decided that one member, Mr J J McKeon, who has been convicted of murder, cannot be released."

Sinn Fein's Attitude.

It was officially stated on Sunday night on behalf of Dal Eirann that there can and will be no meeting of Dal Eirann until Commander J J McKeon is released. It was added that the refusal to release him appears to indicate a desire on the part of the English Government to terminate the truce.

"A Situation of Anxiety and Danger."

It became known on Sunday night in Dublin that a grave attack of affairs had arisen. The fact that an exemption had been made in the case of Mr McKeon was strongly resented, and a firm protest was forwarded to the Government. The protest, it was said, embodied a statement that in the event of Mr McKeon not being released within forty-eight hours and would be put to the truce. Correspondence has, it is stated, been passing over the wire between members of Dal Eirann and the Government with regard to this matter.

The Press Association stated on Sunday night: "The Government's decision to make an exception in the case of Mr McKeon, who is the only member of Dal Eirann not to be released, has created a situation of grave anxiety and danger. The Dal Eirann Cabinet sat till a late hour on Saturday night, and it was authoritatively stated that unless Mr McKeon is released there is a possibility that Sinn Fein will almost immediately terminate the truce. During Sunday wires have been exchanged between Sinn Fein and the Government, and a special courier has been despatched to Mr Lloyd George."

Mr McKeon's Detention.

Mr McKeon, who sits for Longford and Westmeath, was tried by court-martial at Dublin on the 14th June last for the murder of District Inspector McGrath at Ballinacoe, Co. Longford, on the 4th January. A remarkable incident at the trial was the showing forward of a number of Auxiliary Guards who were ordered to fire in defence, bearing testimony to the humanity shown by the accused towards wounded members of the Crown forces in an ambulance at Ballinacoe on the 2nd February, when McKeon tended the wounded Auxiliaries, and ordered his men not to attack any member of the Crown forces who was wounded or unarmed.

RELEASE OF MR MCKEON.

Dublin, Tuesday.—The Press Association's special correspondent in Dublin telegraphs—Mr McKeon was released shortly after six this evening.

It is understood that he was retained when the other members of the Dail were released in order to refer his case, as the only one under sentence for murder to a higher authority. Influenced by his authenticated acts of civility to two wounded Auxiliaries who fell into his hands when he was in charge of an ambulance party, the authorities have decided to release him.

A correspondent wrote last night—Commandant McKeon, I.R.A., was released from Mountjoy prison shortly after six o'clock this evening. He was recognised by a small group who were outside and warmly welcomed. He drove away at once.

Mr McKeon had been confined in Mountjoy Prison under an unconfirmed sentence of death.

Release of Dail Members.

The 35 members of the Dail Eirann who had been in custody yesterday have been liberated. Most of them are now in Dublin, where they were enthusiastically greeted.

Mr McKeon's Statement.

Mr J J McKeon had night issued this statement for publication in the "Sunday Evening Herald" made at his country seat, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court-martial when I made a clear statement that I was not guilty of the foul offence of murder. My release is an acceptance of my attitude that my act was an act of war, and it is, therefore, clear that my release is a final abandonment of any claim by the enemy that the Irish war is murder. The Irish war was war—war waged in accordance with the regulations of an armed party, it is now clear to the Irish people that my release by the English Government is not only an admission on their part that I am a representative of the people, but a realisation that they recognize me as an officer of the Irish Army, as stated by me at the court

WM. B. FITT'S SALES. The Paddocks, Limerick. Cattle and Sheep Market Tomorrow (Wednesday) Aug 10 at 12 o'clock.

GIBSON'S Millinery & Costumes. Specially Reduced Prices during this month previous to stocktaking.

COKE! COKE! COKE! Best Quality French Gas Coke, EX-STEAMER, Just Discharged.

LIMERICK COUNTY COUNCIL Scheme for Scholarships From Primary to Secondary Schools in County Limerick.

Clerk Wanted. CLERK WANTED-A vacancy exists in Manufacturer's Office for a smart Junior Clerk...

SHANNON NAVIGATION Notice of Increase of Tolls and Charges.

BEST COAL 65s. : : : : per ton. KITCHEN COAL 56s. 6d. : : : : per ton. Both Double Screened, Delivered and Stored in Limerick.

H. J. OWENS, DOCK ROAD, LIMERICK, AGENT, THE WHITEHAVEN COLLIERY CO., LTD.

PROFIT BY THIS AD. THERE'S A REASON why people prefer to burn BURNBELL'S KING WIGAN and our BEST ORREL 4-FOOT.

University College, Cork (National University of Ireland). Full Course for Degrees in Arts, Celtic Studies, Science, Medicine, Dentistry, Engineering, Commerce, Agriculture, Law, and Music.

Bishop Foy School, WATERFORD. Chairman of Governors-The Lord Bishop of Cashel.

Wallace Bros., Ltd., COAL IMPORTERS, Mallow Street, Limerick. Telephone, 4. Telegrams, "Kuland."

Limerick Steamship Co. LIMITED. GREAT COAL DEPOT, Dock Road, Limerick.

COOKED HAM-Lady's Bologna, in perfect condition; price moderate to immediate purchaser.

PROVIDES a first-class education with preparation for all usual examinations. Boarding House for boys from 9 to 10 years in former Bishop's Palace.

DUBLIN MOTOR SHOW GREAT REVIVAL IN Irish Motoring. During the period of the Horse Show we have arranged to hold a Special Exhibition of shop-soiled and used cars at exceptionally favourable prices.

NEW ZEALAND Via PANAMA CANAL. Shaw, Savill and Albion Line.

LET-Well Furnished Bedrooms 2 Alexandra Terrace. OFFICE-Boy wanted for city office; must write a good hand; make himself generally useful; well recommended.

TYPE COPYING. CIRCULAR Letters, Testimonials, Notices of Meetings, Balance Sheets, Authors' MSS., Legal and Engineering, executed promptly.

THE Committee of Management of the above Asylum will be grateful for gifts of illustrated papers, newspapers, and magazines for the use of the patients.

Motors For Hire. REASONABLE FARES. The Motor Service Co., 16 THOMAS STREET. PHONE 320.

WANTED-Young man seeks position; presently engaged; desires change; excellent references. Apply, Box No. 791, this office.

CORRY'S Original Tobacco Lies Powder. For Linc and all skin troubles in Cattle, Horses, Pigs, &c.

ALBERT 4-SEATER and 5-SEATER. ARROL-Johnson Touring Model. B.A.C. 2-SEATER. 4-SEATER and Saloon.

MESSRS DAVIES SURGEON DENTISTS, 11 Cecil Street, Limerick.

COOKED HAM, Dublin Tripe, Tomatoes, Beans, Peas, Potatoes, Plums, &c. - BARRY'S. A REPUTABLE WOMAN, past middle age, seeks situation as working Housekeeper for two or three adults.

THE Fountain Pen Depot. The "Swan" Fountain Pens, 12s 6d upwards. Presentation Pens in Variety.

ALBERT 4-SEATER. 119 h.p. 4 Cylinders, Magneto Ignition, 3 Speeds, Electric Lighting and Starting.

Griffin's Nursery Ballinacurra. PALMS, Flowering Plants, Cut Flower Plants, and Bouquets.

LET-Well Furnished Bedrooms 2 Alexandra Terrace. OFFICE-Boy wanted for city office; must write a good hand; make himself generally useful; well recommended.

THE Fountain Pen Depot. The "Waterman" Fountain Pen, 17s 6d up. The "Onoto" Pen " 17s 6d up.

ALBERT 4-SEATER. 119 h.p. 4 Cylinders, Magneto Ignition, 3 Speeds, Electric Lighting and Starting.

Garages and Motor Owners. WE Stock High Class Tools, Wrenches, Blocks and Dies, Hook Saws, etc.

LET-Well Furnished Bedrooms 2 Alexandra Terrace. OFFICE-Boy wanted for city office; must write a good hand; make himself generally useful; well recommended.

THE Fountain Pen Depot. The "Waterman" Fountain Pen, 17s 6d up. The "Onoto" Pen " 17s 6d up.

ALBERT 4-SEATER. 119 h.p. 4 Cylinders, Magneto Ignition, 3 Speeds, Electric Lighting and Starting.

Garages and Motor Owners. WE Stock High Class Tools, Wrenches, Blocks and Dies, Hook Saws, etc.

LET-Well Furnished Bedrooms 2 Alexandra Terrace. OFFICE-Boy wanted for city office; must write a good hand; make himself generally useful; well recommended.

THE Fountain Pen Depot. The "Waterman" Fountain Pen, 17s 6d up. The "Onoto" Pen " 17s 6d up.

ALBERT 4-SEATER. 119 h.p. 4 Cylinders, Magneto Ignition, 3 Speeds, Electric Lighting and Starting.

Garages and Motor Owners. WE Stock High Class Tools, Wrenches, Blocks and Dies, Hook Saws, etc.

LET-Well Furnished Bedrooms 2 Alexandra Terrace. OFFICE-Boy wanted for city office; must write a good hand; make himself generally useful; well recommended.

THE Fountain Pen Depot. The "Waterman" Fountain Pen, 17s 6d up. The "Onoto" Pen " 17s 6d up.

ALBERT 4-SEATER. 119 h.p. 4 Cylinders, Magneto Ignition, 3 Speeds, Electric Lighting and Starting.

Garages and Motor Owners. WE Stock High Class Tools, Wrenches, Blocks and Dies, Hook Saws, etc.

LET-Well Furnished Bedrooms 2 Alexandra Terrace. OFFICE-Boy wanted for city office; must write a good hand; make himself generally useful; well recommended.

THE Fountain Pen Depot. The "Waterman" Fountain Pen, 17s 6d up. The "Onoto" Pen " 17s 6d up.

ALBERT 4-SEATER. 119 h.p. 4 Cylinders, Magneto Ignition, 3 Speeds, Electric Lighting and Starting.

Garages and Motor Owners. WE Stock High Class Tools, Wrenches, Blocks and Dies, Hook Saws, etc.

LET-Well Furnished Bedrooms 2 Alexandra Terrace. OFFICE-Boy wanted for city office; must write a good hand; make himself generally useful; well recommended.

THE Fountain Pen Depot. The "Waterman" Fountain Pen, 17s 6d up. The "Onoto" Pen " 17s 6d up.

ALBERT 4-SEATER. 119 h.p. 4 Cylinders, Magneto Ignition, 3 Speeds, Electric Lighting and Starting.

Garages and Motor Owners. WE Stock High Class Tools, Wrenches, Blocks and Dies, Hook Saws, etc.

LET-Well Furnished Bedrooms 2 Alexandra Terrace. OFFICE-Boy wanted for city office; must write a good hand; make himself generally useful; well recommended.

THE Fountain Pen Depot. The "Waterman" Fountain Pen, 17s 6d up. The "Onoto" Pen " 17s 6d up.

ALBERT 4-SEATER. 119 h.p. 4 Cylinders, Magneto Ignition, 3 Speeds, Electric Lighting and Starting.

Garages and Motor Owners. WE Stock High Class Tools, Wrenches, Blocks and Dies, Hook Saws, etc.

LET-Well Furnished Bedrooms 2 Alexandra Terrace. OFFICE-Boy wanted for city office; must write a good hand; make himself generally useful; well recommended.

THE Fountain Pen Depot. The "Waterman" Fountain Pen, 17s 6d up. The "Onoto" Pen " 17s 6d up.

ALBERT 4-SEATER. 119 h.p. 4 Cylinders, Magneto Ignition, 3 Speeds, Electric Lighting and Starting.

Garages and Motor Owners. WE Stock High Class Tools, Wrenches, Blocks and Dies, Hook Saws, etc.

LET-Well Furnished Bedrooms 2 Alexandra Terrace. OFFICE-Boy wanted for city office; must write a good hand; make himself generally useful; well recommended.

THE Fountain Pen Depot. The "Waterman" Fountain Pen, 17s 6d up. The "Onoto" Pen " 17s 6d up.

ALBERT 4-SEATER. 119 h.p. 4 Cylinders, Magneto Ignition, 3 Speeds, Electric Lighting and Starting.

Garages and Motor Owners. WE Stock High Class Tools, Wrenches, Blocks and Dies, Hook Saws, etc.

LET-Well Furnished Bedrooms 2 Alexandra Terrace. OFFICE-Boy wanted for city office; must write a good hand; make himself generally useful; well recommended.

THE Fountain Pen Depot. The "Waterman" Fountain Pen, 17s 6d up. The "Onoto" Pen " 17s 6d up.

ALBERT 4-SEATER. 119 h.p. 4 Cylinders, Magneto Ignition, 3 Speeds, Electric Lighting and Starting.

Garages and Motor Owners. WE Stock High Class Tools, Wrenches, Blocks and Dies, Hook Saws, etc.

LIMERICK HARBOUR BOARD.

Mr J. P. Goodbody presided at the meeting of the Limerick Harbour Commissioners yesterday. There were present—Messrs P. O'Flynn, B. C. O'Connell, J. C. O'Connell, D. Griffin, B. C. O'Connell, and J. P. Goodbody.

TO CLARE AGRICULTURAL COMMITTEE.

At the monthly meeting of the above Committee, Mr J. D. Kelly, O. J. O'Connell, and J. P. Goodbody were present.

NEWCASTLE WEST FAIRS AND MARKETS.

At the request of the Town Commissioners a meeting of the traders of the town was held at the Temperance Hall, on Thursday evening.

HINTS FOR THE HOME.

TO KEEP THE FLOOR TIDY. Young mothers who have the little ones with them constantly are often tempted to restrict the children.

LIMERICK COUNTY COUNCIL.

Scheme for University Scholarships in County Limerick. L.—DATE OF OPERATION.

The Optical Prescription House.

SPECTACLE AND GLIP FRAMES AND RIMLESS MOUNTINGS. PRISM AND OCULARS.

A COMPLAINT AGAINST PILOTS.

A letter was read from the Harbour Master reporting that the SS. "Queen Alexandra" arrived in port without an escort pilot on Monday evening last.

SCARCITY OF FOODSTUFF.

A letter was read from Dal Eirann forwarding a copy of a notice which was sent by them for publication in this paper.

CUTICURA HEALS SKIN TROUBLE.

In Pimples All Over Face. Itched and Lost Rest. "A pimple started" on my chin which I picked and it spread all over my face.

FISH AS A FOOD.

Fish compares favourably with highest meat, containing quite as much nourishing material, weight for weight, as beef, says an authority.

TO LOOSEN GLASS STOPPERS.

When a glass stopper becomes fixed in a bottle or decanter, rub a drop or two of salad oil round the stopper.

THE TELEPHONE SYSTEM.

In the House of Commons, Mr. Kellaway moved the second reading of the Telegraph (Money) Bill, which, he said, made provision for the expenditure of five million pounds on the telephone system.

ELECTRIC LIGHTING.

A letter was read from the Secretary, Electric Lighting Committee, with reference to the price of current to the Harbour Board.

THE MAILS QUESTION.

With reference to the question of the cross-Church mail service, a letter was read from the Dublin Chamber of Commerce.

CONDOLENCE.

The Secretary alluded to the death of Mr. James Barry, who was a former member of the Board.

VERMICELLI AND EGGS.

Take two ounces of vermicelli, three ounces of grated cheese, one pint of milk, one egg, half a teaspoonful of salt, and half an ounce of butter.

TO CLEAN A BROWN LEATHER BAG.

Wet wash the bag well with soap and water, moistened with oil. Allow this to dry into the leather.

ENGLISH.

1. COMPOSITION.—The writing of an essay as part of a prose or a passage or other matter applied.

CONDOLENCE.

The Secretary alluded to the death of Mr. James Barry, who was a former member of the Board.

CONDOLENCE.

The Secretary alluded to the death of Mr. James Barry, who was a former member of the Board.

CONDOLENCE.

The Secretary alluded to the death of Mr. James Barry, who was a former member of the Board.

CONDOLENCE.

The Secretary alluded to the death of Mr. James Barry, who was a former member of the Board.

CONDOLENCE.

The Secretary alluded to the death of Mr. James Barry, who was a former member of the Board.

CONDOLENCE.

The Secretary alluded to the death of Mr. James Barry, who was a former member of the Board.

CONDOLENCE.

The Secretary alluded to the death of Mr. James Barry, who was a former member of the Board.

CONDOLENCE.

The Secretary alluded to the death of Mr. James Barry, who was a former member of the Board.

CONDOLENCE.

The Secretary alluded to the death of Mr. James Barry, who was a former member of the Board.

CONDOLENCE.

The Secretary alluded to the death of Mr. James Barry, who was a former member of the Board.

CONDOLENCE.

The Secretary alluded to the death of Mr. James Barry, who was a former member of the Board.

CONDOLENCE.

The Secretary alluded to the death of Mr. James Barry, who was a former member of the Board.