ROBERT HANNA & SONS, 121 O'Connell Street, Limerick.

The many expressions of regret that have reached us (in many instances from quarters least expected) consequent upon our retiring from business after nearly fifty-three years trading in the city, make it incumbent upon us to acknowledge in this public manner our appreciation of such, and to express our very sincere thanks for all that has been said and communicated.

So far as we are aware all local accounts owing have now been discharged, but any not yet sent should be furnished to the above address before the end of this month, at which date the trading accounts of the firm will be finally closed.
