LIMERICK HARBOUR BOARD.

Mr J P Goodbody presided at the meeting of the Limerick Harbour Commissioners yesterday. The meeting was held in the Mayor's Chamber, Town Hall, at 10 o'clock.

The officials in attendance were—Messrs J P Power, Secretary; H V Morony, Engineer, and Captain J Fitzmaurice, Harbour Master.

Another item on the agenda was a letter from Messrs J Bannatyne and Sons referring to a complaint made by them some time ago in reference to the disturbance of their fishing gear in the docks.

The Chairman—Anything we can do cannot stop this conduct. Mr Holliday—This is another complaint? The Secretary—Yes.

Mr Holliday said that the Board did not want to exclude the public from the use of the docks, but they had no other alternative. Yesterday he noticed the usual gambling party down there.

Mr Griffin stated that an additional watchman would meet the difficulty. The Chairman thought the Board should be paid to the expense of employing an additional watchman.

Mr Ryan proposed that the rate be reduced to 11s 8d per car. The resolution was adopted.

Mr P Quinn, representing the Limerick Motor Works, attended with reference to the dues on motor cars coming to Limerick.

The Secretary reported that two coasters, eight regular boats, and one motor launch were arrived in port since last meeting.

A report was read by the Secretary in which he stated that Mr Thomas Mahony, senior, and Mr P Brennan were appointed to represent the Limerick and Western Harbours, respectively, on the newly constituted Harbour Committee.

The Board then separated. REGISTRAR GENERAL'S REPORT. ABOUT COURSING.

Captain D'Arcy Hamilton, R.A.M.C., writes in the "Farmer's Gazette": "I have been asked to write some words on coursing. Coursing, indeed, is the poor man's sport. Hunting, racing, shooting, golf, and all the other pastimes you can name, call for an outlay in hard cash—hunting and shooting a particularly expensive one, beyond the poor man's pocket anyway."

The writer goes on to observe—All the sports, there is room for more coursing in Ireland than at present goes on. There are not clubs enough of the small dog. The big coursing clubs that are the only ones to a very great extent.
