CITY BURGLARIES

During the early hours of yesterday morning at Crescent Bar, Quinlan-street, the property of Mr W J Smith, was burglariously entered and a quantity of liquor and some money carried off.

An extensive search has been effected through the sky-light at the rear of the premises, as the burglar had broken up there were traces of blood on the part of the counter directly underneath the aperture. On the same occasion the fruit and vegetable store of Mr T. Savign, Kooke's-street, was entered, and a sum of £10 extracted from the cash meter. The burglar has become so frequent late in the evening, but so far no one has been made amenable for these attacks on property.
