MR. DE VALERA TO THE PEOPLE. Manifesto on the Situation.

Mr. De Valera on Friday night issued the following manifesto to the Irish people, on the second anniversary of the meeting of Dail Eireann:
I am glad to be with you to greet and congratulate you on this second anniversary of the formal confirmation of our nation's destiny...
Great indeed have been your sufferings. For months authentic despatches brought news of the almost daily assassination of representative citizens, of the ostentatious and mutilation of defenceless prisoners, of the fogging and inhuman tortures of brave men, even the boy condemned to the scaffold who would not be false to the patriot's cause...
Your sufferings will surely not be in vain. The surrender of right, which alone could give victory to the cause, has not been your aim. His fight for freedom will not be your aim. Love of country and of freedom will be your aim, and every drop of patriot blood that he sheds will be made for us more sacred by your preservation and more certain its fulfilment.

Partition Act as "Spring-Board" Should Sinn Fein Accept It? Views of Bishop Cohan.

Most Rev. Dr. Cohan, Bishop of Cork, in the course of an interview given to a representative of the "Manchester Guardian" said he had discussed the Partition Act with a great many people, but nobody took any interest in it, so while it was taken for granted that the Act would be worked in Ulster, he had not found a single person who had even read it in the South. If an election in the South could be conceived under the present conditions there would certainly be an overwhelming majority in the Dail to the Parliament for Sinn Fein, and though the Act offered no prospect of an ending peace, he was inclined to think that Sinn Fein would be well advised to accept it as Ireland had accepted unsatisfactory measures before— as a spring-board from which they could jump off to something better.

Conditions in the United States. The New York correspondent of the London "Times" says:—With over 2,000,000 men out of work, or temporarily paid off, American industry is rearing work on a reduced wage scale. The most notable reductions are those affecting the textile industries, where wages have been cut 25 per cent. On the whole, the men are accepting work under the new conditions with good grace, recognizing that these conditions are the only alternative to the closing down of the mills. In such places there are vociferous protests. While the men are not prepared to accept wages far below their former level, they are prepared to accept wages far below their former level.

LENSES FOR THE EYES. The average man who has to wear glasses usually thinks little of the mounting, the adjustment and the eye examination. The lenses are the important thing. You look through the Lenses from the time you begin to wear glasses until your eyes can no longer see. TORIC Lenses are the greatest improvement in lenses in the last hundred years.

A Strolling Player. Four that hour the die was cast, three years ago, was the story of Mr. MacDonnell's company, delightfully interpreting the role of Paganini in "A Bold Stroke for a Wife."

Better days now began to dawn; his talent for comedy was being slowly acknowledged; he became a popular name among the Dublin and the other actors of the day.
