Brilliant Limerick Man Appointed Professor of Law in Trinity

Mr. Michael Joseph Ryan, B.A., B.E., B.Sc., LL.B., son of Mr. John Ryan, St. John's Villa, Malgrave street, Limerick, has been appointed to the Reid Professorship of Constitutional and Criminal Law and Law of Evidence in Trinity College, Dublin. This important post has been secured solely on merit, and is but one in a long series of remarkable successes to the credit of the recipient. Mr. Ryan has had a strikingly brilliant educational career, having consistently excelled all along in every stage of the various courses he went through as a student. Portions of his education had in the Christ Church School, Thurles, where he won valuable scholarships and medals in all grades of the Intermediate. In 1908 he was appointed to the R.U.I. and was awarded a first-class scholarship (first place) in the examination for entrance to Trinity College, Dublin. In this institution he passed the First Arts with first class honours in 1909, winning first place in Irish, and was awarded an Exhibition value $16 in the National University of Ireland. He was awarded in 1909 a College Scholarship in Mathematics value $30. In 1910 he passed the Second Arts with first class honours, and the first Engineering with first place and first class honours, being awarded the O'Connell prize for first Engineering Examination. These successes and more important ones, which are mentioned here, followed up until in June, 1912, he obtained the B.Sc. (Bachelor of Science) Degree in Mathematical Physics, Experimental Physics and Geology. In September of the same year he passed the B.E. (Bachelor of Engineering) Degree examination, with second place and second class honours, being awarded an exhibition and prize in connection with the same examination. In May, 1913 he was elected Auditor of the University College Literary and Historical Society and was in that position awarded the President's silver medal for impromptu debate. He obtained the B.A. Degree with honours in Legal and Political Science, etc. in September, 1916. In the following September he passed the First University Examination in Law, with first class honours and the Degree of LL.B. (Bachelor of Laws) with first class honours. In October, 1917, he entered King's Inns as law student. Here he again entered the leading prize and honours, and as the final examination (honours course) in October, 1919, he obtained first place and was awarded the John Brooke Scholarship, value $20 per annum, on condition for 3 years, and excused attendance at three terms. Lectures and two terms of Commons, otherwise necessary for his call to the Bar, and granted him accordingly. In November, 1919, he was called to the Irish Bar, and on January 22nd last he was appointed to the Reid Professorship in Trinity College. Mr. Ryan is not only an eminent scholar, as the foregoing sketch shows, but has already shown himself to be a thoroughgoing and successful lawyer and advocate. He is attached to the Lecturer's chair of the Irish Bar and has appeared in a number of cases with immense credit to his credit. To himself and his respected father, we offer our sincere congratulations on a career which has been so successful and so creditable, and we cordially wish the former joy and to enjoy many further brilliant successes in his career.

FOR PEACE WITH HONOUR Suggested Tridium All Over Ireland

The following appeared in Trinity's issue of the " Freeman ":- DEAR SIR—Will you allow me to make some suggestions through your valuable paper to Irish Pilgrimage to Lourdes. I happened to be one of the privileged pilgrims to the first Irish National Pilgrimage, and I have never forgotten, nor can I believe any one of my fellow pilgrims can forget, Our Lady's goodness to us, poor Irish, on that glorious occasion. It has been in my mind for some time past, and I have been asked to make by some past pilgrims the following suggestions through your medium. We are approaching the Feast of Our Lady under the title of " Our Lady of Lourdes " 11th February. I would suggest a public Tridium in all parts of Ireland, commencing on the 9th, and ending on her feast day with general Holy Communion. Let this be offered up for peace with honour and full liberation of our beloved nation, promising Our Lady in return a huge Irish Pilgrimage to Lourdes, and a year's vacation, cannot go to join as associates. Prayer under present circumstances is most useful, and it is, no doubt, the most powerful. I see by today's paper that the beloved Cardinal Logue makes a somewhat similar suggestion. I ask all who fall in with me to kindly answer through the Press. I would also suggest that the Bishops should be asked in every Catholic home from this until the dawn is in the sky, and then to be continued in hearts, thanksgiving.—Yours sincerely, MARY BEAN U. MURPHY-CHAM. An Presentation, O'Connell-Neary, Off. Market.

THE NEXT BUDGET ABOLITION OF THE E. P. D.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Chamberlain, addressing his constituents at Birmingham on Thursday night, announced the abolition of the E. P. D. as a result of the success of the E. P. D. in the House of Commons. He said that the E. P. D. was a failure, and that it was necessary to abolish it. He also mentioned the fact that the E. P. D. had cost the Government £1,000,000. He said that he was glad to see that the E. P. D. had failed, and that he was glad to see that the Government had been able to abolish it. He also mentioned the fact that the E. P. Bush Fruit Cultivation

Dealing with the bush fruits in the second of his lectures at the Royal College of Science, Dublin, Mr. F. O'Sullivan (Lecturer in Horticulture) said that they had many qualities to commend them to the amateur gardener; they were very hardy, took up little space, cropped freely, and were very accommodating as regards soil and situation. Young bushes of gooseberries and currants could easily be raised by taking cuttings of varieties already existing in the garden. This method, so well adapted to the amateur, eliminated the risk of introducing disease with new stock. The ideal cutting was a vigorous, well ripened shoot of the previous summer's growth, about 18 inches in length. Cuttings were best put in at the end of October, but they might be planted as late as the end of February; compared with autumn planted ones, however, late sittings made small growth the first season. Depth of planting was important, as within limits, the deeper the planting, the greater the number of roots formed. Cuttings of black currants should be planted nine inches deep, and currant or gooseberry cuttings, 12 inches. The cuttings might be put in at six inches apart in lines 18 inches apart—the latter distance to allow for hoeing and weeding during the first summer. At the end of the first season each cutting should have made three strong shoots. If these were more than one foot high by the end of the year, they would be strong enough to put on their fruiting branches. If less it would require a year in a rich nursery bed. Gooseberries and currants responded to heavy dressings of farmyard manure. In one year the difference between manured and unmanured plots was found to be as much as 50 per cent. in the case of gooseberries. Artificial fertilizers could not replace farmyard manure as a source of fertilizing ingredients in this crop.

CITY MILK FUND

GIFT SALE IN AID. There was a big and varied display of goods at the City Milk Fund Gift Sale, held at the City Hall, O'Connell Avenue, Limerick, in connection with the City Milk Fund, of which Mrs. O'Brien, South Hill, is President. For a great number of years the deserving poor of the city have been supplied, through the munificence of the City Council, with a supply of pure milk at cost price, and in these times, when the price is abnormal, and practically beyond the power of the poorer classes to pay, the benefits conferred by this agency cannot be over-stated. The practical side of the work has had at its head an exponent in Mrs. O'Brien, and those associated with her in the work, and the success of yesterday's sale clearly exemplified the appreciation shown towards the undertaking.
