COALITION SPLIT

Lord Salisbury Speaks Out

Government Severely Criticised

The Press Association has received the following letter from Lord Salisbury:—

21, Arlington Street, S W, June 19, 1921. The Editor of the Press Association.

Sir—The result of the by-election in East Essex following on by-elections, cannot be ignored. It is useless to disguise from ourselves the fact that Sir Hildred Carleton lost the election because he supported the Coalition. Personally, if I had a vote I should have voted for him, because the support of the Government was not the only issue in the contest, but as regards the Coalition, I am afraid there are many of us who do not differ with the majority of the East Essex electors. The fact is the Coalition Government no longer possesses the full confidence of the Unionist Party. We appreciate the great services which it rendered to the country during the war. Many of its members we should still be proud to follow in another political connection, but its record, the ill success of its policy abroad, its tardy and imperfect realisation of the economic crisis at home, and the tragic failure of its administration of the South and West of Ireland, have fatally estranged public opinion. We are driven to the conclusion that unless the Unionist Party recovers its liberty of action there can be but one result—the Government will secure representatives to oppose the Government where it can, and the country will be plunged into a state of anarchy and chaos, and the attempt at hoarding of our resources will be discarded or fatally compromised. I have hesitated a long time in deciding whether it would be presumption on my part to speak out, but in a degree a certain responsibility to the party rests upon each of us, and responsibilities must not be avoided. As it appears to me, the duty of every Unionist in the country is to approach the Unionist member or candidate, as the case may be, and request that henceforth he shall consider himself free from any binding obligation to support the Coalition Government. If this request is made, and if he agrees to it, I need not say there would be no reason why he should not continue to vote with the Government upon issues which he might agree with them, but the action would be a clear indication, in the eyes of his constituents, that he would prefer a Unionist Government—that is, a Government of steady policy and settled principle, a Constitutional Government of national representation, opposed to the one side to nationalism, Bolshevism, and on the other to opportunism and administrative waste. This is what I believe the country requires, and this is what I believe the Unionist party and all others who agree with their principles, whatever name they bear, ought to secure for it.

I have the honour to be, Sir, your obedient servant. SALISBURY.

TOWN TENANTS' LEAGUE

LANDLORDS' LIABILITY FOR REPAIRS

The annual meeting of the Central Branch of the All-Ireland Town Tenants' League was held at the Office, 43, Nassau Squares, Dublin, Mr P J Carolin in the chair. There was a large attendance of members from all parts of Dublin city and county.

Mr James A. Magher, LL B, solicitor, submitted a lengthy report dealing with the cases which he had been instructed to act on the tenants' behalf. He was glad to report that, as the result of an interview he had had with the landlords' representatives in a case affecting five tenants, proceedings had been withdrawn. The landlord accepted the original proposal put forward by Mr O'Connell Blacoin, and now admitted that the rent and terms suggested by him were reasonable. Cases were dealt with from Duncannon, Glenties, Fairview, No to Circular Road, Richmond Road, Angler street, Anghrim street, Nelson street, Seville Place, and Booterstown. These cases arose through excessive rents being demanded by the landlords on account of their liability for repairs. In none of the cases, however, had the landlords been eager to discharge their liability for repairs, and, as a consequence, the houses for which they were receiving rents that were more than adequate were falling into a state of decay. The tenants in each case naturally object to pay the imposition, and it was hoped that the owners would see the under-ability of further pressing the matter.

A letter was read from Mr William Field, landlord of a copy of a letter he had forwarded to the Rev. Mr Dr. Dalton, M.P. dealing with the Rev. Mr Dalton's Act, and urging the necessity of continuing the existing protection to business premises and further extending it, so as to embrace premises included in the present Act.

The Chairman expressed the hope that Mr Field's letter would have the desired effect. There was no doubt but it would be greatly unjust and unwise to slow any part of the existing Act to lapse, and this piece of legislation, in the mercy of house owners and middle men.

A far-reaching business meeting was adjourned until 5 p.m. on Thursday.

THE LOCAL SCHOOLS

Report From M. O. H.

Question of Cottage Rents

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

At the meeting of the Kilmallock District Council Mr James Brennan presided. Also present were—Messrs J McGeary, J McGeary, Fynn, J Morrissey, A Burke, M Murphy, A Harro, and M Oasey.

Mr John O'Donnell, S S O, reported that some time past some persons unknown were dumping the contents of animals into the Malaga at Orogans Bridge. He suggested that the Council should take practical steps to have the nuisance abated as people in the neighbourhood complained of the terrible stench and farmers were apprehensive that it may cause the spread of disease among cattle.

Order noted.

The Clerk reported that the minute book taken from the Boardroom by the militia was returned by them on the 13th May, 1921, and he had found therein pages 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63,
