In the Chancery Division on Monday, before

Mr II Witson, KO who appeared for the petitioning oredisors, Messrs O'Callaghan and Co. said Mr Marnan did not file an rifl lavis in support of his abjection before the Chief Clerk. Me Marnah said that one of the gentlemen interested had acted as director bits of Loog and Co and O'Callaghan and Co, and that the gorerei underesending was that the two comparies were connected.

Mr Wilson said that was not correct. Mc O Callaghan, who was the gentleman referred to and who was M yor of Linesley and had been show, was not a director of the Company to ligaldation. He was only a shatcholder to the extent of Lad. He had become a shareholder for qualifying purposes, and otherwise had no invocesa whatever in it.

Mr Marman said he also appeared for the Boston Shas Oo, St Louis.

Mr Wilson said that would not do. There was nos a word about that in the patition. Mr Marcan read an affidavia by Mr Futhrell. solicitor, in support of the application, in which to was spassed, amonges other facts, that the Company was only three years in existence, and asked shat his loadship should appoint Mr Telford, who was not connected with either company,

Mr Wilson said that Messrs Orowley and Bolger, solicitors, who were oreditors for £170, Ala: Orjadisd.

Mr James Hanry, representing D Gray, of Leeds, creditor, for £400, and Dr J Smith and Oo, Lid, of Leicester, oraditors for £410, also supported Mr Marnan's application.

Mr Wilson stated that Mr Parsiil's appoint. ment was supported by aboat three fourths in value of the creditors. HARVEST PROSPECTS

The following remarks on the "Dally Ohroniola" in regard to the harvest prospects ars musually applicable :- Barly harvests, owing to the premature ripening of grain by the heat and drought, are in fall swing all over the country. The straw is very short, and the yiald of grain will generally be balow the average. Farmers report that most crops are a failure, especially robts, with the one axception of potatoes, the main ercps of which are promising well as present-if they get rain 8000.

The Masser of the Rolls said he would not do that. He doubt not affir a the Catof Clerk's appointment of Mr Parill as liguidator, He saw no pressdent whatever for making such an appointment, and to sceale a precedent would not merely be very inconvenions, but it might have serious consequences in other cases. There was no personal objection whataver to Mr Parbill, who was a highly honourable man, and the fact that he was andhor for the Munster and Leinster Bank showed the position he held. What objestion, he asked, was there to Mr Telford ?

Mr. Wilson said there was no orjection whatover personally, but they wanted some person appointed who was sonversant with this partisuiar trade.

Mr Healy said if Mr Telford or any other gentleman unacquainted with this particular trade was sppolated it would mean a loss of 10s in the 2 to the graduors.

On the application of Mr Wilson, the Master of the Rolls referred the matter back to the Oblaf Clerk for the appointment of a liquidator other than Mr Pursil, recerving the question of costs.

Mr M'Carthy said that on one opeasion Dr Kelly had risked his life doing a good turn for the best of Irishmon-William Allen-and hay did not forget that.

Mr Quinian-We all concur in the expressions regarding the good qualities of Dr Kelly. Mr M'Oarshy having finally proposed the adjournment of the quession to the next mesting, this was agreed to.

Dr Maddon, MO, Klifescla, wrote that he had received an application for income tax wish regard to the land and residence ocenplad by him. He had never beard of such an application before. He know of dispensary dostors who had cooupled such plots for more shan 30 years, and no such claim had been received. He should feel obliged if the guardiana would advise him on the matter,

The matter was adjourned to next meeting, she cierk to consule with Dr Madden on the subjeet.

Mr M'Oormack proposed that Dr Condon be appointed to the position left - vacant by the resignation of Dr Kelly.

Mr M'Oarthy said is was evident that they could never get the red tape out of the country. At first they wanted to superannuate Dr. Kelly after fifteen years' service or so. If a workingman, with that service, asked for aperannuation he would be kicked out the oor. The present was not the time to make another appointment. Is was mensioned that Dr Morrissey was now arrying out the duties of De Keily, and appawintly entitled to the remaneration formerly haid to Dr Kelly as well as his own. Is was iso stated than Dr O'Dwyer, the Tipperary Dispensary Medical Officer, was at present on lanve, and phas his dusies were being discharged by Dr. Condon. Mr Dehersy said that there was no personal piccilon to Dr Condon and if there was no ther application when the time came he would be selected. The other applicants, if any, would also get des consideration. Mr M Carshy said the doctors could go to South Africa and Switzerland, swop places whenever they liked and they were scarcely home when shey were off again. They were cot monding matters now by suggesting the appointment of Dr Condon. One man was goibing two pays as present and is would mean that another man would be gatting two pays inesead. If one man could do a job why should they pay for two f Mr Toomey said the guardians were paying Dr Morrissoy swo salaries at present and they were trying to appoint a second dootor and as the same sime to pay a superannuation allowsuos to the retired doctor. At the time Dr Kelly was appointed over 500 people came under the care of their workheass doctors, and surely he could not see why Dr Morrissy could not look after the handful of patients is the bospital now. alcohol fuels manufactured overseas and imported ready for use, they were in favour of a substantial preference on any fual imported from the Dominions and Oolonies, but it was claimed that no fuel tax whatever should be impresed as long as the present vehicle tax remained in existence.

Mr E Shrapnell Smith, representing the Comercial Motor Users' Association, quoted the | Parliamant. resommendations of Mr Walter Lopg's Inter-Departmental Committee and the Departmental Committee appcinted by Sir Ecle Gedden to the effect that the present vehicle tax should render all users of motor vi hicks free of fuel taxation. He also quoted figures of running costs relating to the tests carried out on alcoher mintures by the London General Omnibus Company which showed that power alchol could not compete with patrol unless it were Imported like petrol free of import duty.

The Ohanoellor, in reply, stated that there had always been higher duties on imported alsohol than on alsohol produced within these islands on account of the Ruciss resulctions that impose a special burden upon home manu facture, and that he was not prepared to put the home producer in a worse position than the importer. He polited out that as the resait of the rebate of 31 the net duty on Empire entrits imported for power purposes would only amount to one peany or 2d per proof gallon. Referring to the particular preference that has been given to Empire spirit, and which is exercised by plasing an additional duty of 2s 6d upon foreign produced spirit, he was not in a position to say that the Government was prepared to go back on a clearly. declared policy with regard to preference to the Ropire. Apart from this, he saw no diff. culsies in the way of adopting a different seale of preference duties for powar alcahol from that applicable to alcohel intended for other purpopes. The subject, however, was very complay, and he would ponsider it further.
